Join the Children's Ministry Team
We are looking for two additional volunteers to join the team and help teach Children's Ministry in 2024. It's an excellent way to serve in this church, and we have a vibrant Children's Ministry program. So, if you have a joy teaching children from PreK to 5th Grade, we'd love to have ya! It's pretty low commitment, so not too demanding, so if you feel you'd have a couple weeks out of the month free, or even just one week a month, then this could be the right fit for you.
If interested, please reach out to Gabriel Requadt, our Director of Christian Education, for more information: gabriel@parkwayucc.org; 314-872-9330 x101

Looking for More Singers for PUCC Sanctuary Choir
If you've always imagined singing in the choir—or the thought is just occurring to you for the first time right now, why not give it a try? We're needing extra singers right now—reach out to barry@parkwayucc.org 636-485-5378 to let him know!
We have an intergenerational choir called First Sunday Choir that gathers at 9am on the first Sunday of each month to learn a simple song or two to sing that morning in worship.
The Sanctuary Choir sings on the second and fourth Sundays of each month from September – May and practices on Thursday evenings.
Our Children's Choir sings on the third Sunday of each month.

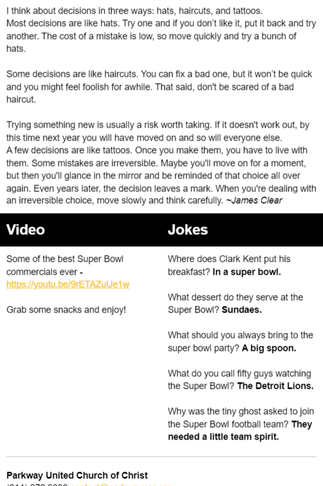
Speak Your Truth to Power

HELP WANTED. Volunteers are needed for the legislative letter-writing event after worship Sunday, Feb. 25. We want a few people to assist participants identify their Missouri representatives and addresses, locate supplies or help with other needs or questions. Basic wording for the prepared personal letters has been drafted by Cindy Changyit Levin. The bill we're focusing on (HB1708) relaxes current restrictions on where weapons can be carried and would repeal the current prohibition for churches and other places of worship. Please contact Nancy Litzinger if you'd like to help. For more info, contact Nancy Litzinger at nancywlitzinger@gmail.com.



Things to Ponder

I think about decisions in three ways: hats, haircuts, and tattoos.
Most decisions are like hats. Try one and if you don't like it, put it back and try another. The cost of a mistake is low, so move quickly and try a bunch of hats.

Some decisions are like haircuts. You can fix a bad one, but it won't be quick and you might feel foolish for awhile. That said, don't be scared of a bad haircut.

Trying something new is usually a risk worth taking. If it doesn't work out, by this time next year you will have moved on and so will everyone else.
A few decisions are like tattoos. Once you make them, you have to live with them. Some mistakes are irreversible. Maybe you'll move on for a moment, but then you'll glance in the mirror and be reminded of that choice all over again. Even years later, the decision leaves a mark. When you're dealing with an irreversible choice, move slowly and think carefully. ~James Clear
