2nd Week after Epiphany

Sunday, January 17, 2021 | 10:00am | YouTube

Gathering <https://youtu.be/aklYMO8Ksew>

In honor of Martin Luther King Jr. Weekend, here's a lovely two-minute immersion in amazing archival footage from the 1963 March on Washington for Jobs and Freedom. No doubt Dr. King would want us to remember and celebrate all the people who made the march possible - inspiring us to keep working, marching, and fighting for jobs, freedom, equal rights, liberation, inclusivity, and a world where Black lives are no longer systematically targeted for demise. This labor of love is available for congregations and individuals everywhere, so share it far and wide: in worship, on social media, on your website, with your family and friends. Let freedom ring! www.saltproject.org

Meditation But now, because of the smartphone, America and the world are seeing in vivid detail the brutality that communities have known for generations. You can't deny. You can't look away. It's there. I do believe people are seeing the injustice of it all and are prepared to take action in a way that we've not seen before. And that gives me hope. ~Kamala Harris

Welcome Let us know you are here!

Scripture 1 Samuel 3:1-10 (CEB – Common English Bible)

Now the boy Samuel was serving the Lord under Eli. The Lord’s word was rare at that time, and visions weren’t widely known. One day Eli, whose eyes had grown so weak he was unable to see, was lying down in his room. God’s lamp hadn’t gone out yet, and Samuel was lying down in the Lord’s temple, where God’s chest was.

The Lord called to Samuel. “I’m here,” he said.

Samuel hurried to Eli and said, “I’m here. You called me?”

“I didn’t call you,” Eli replied. “Go lie down.” So he did.

Again the Lord called Samuel, so Samuel got up, went to Eli, and said, “I’m here. You called me?”

“I didn’t call, my son,” Eli replied. “Go and lie down.”

(Now Samuel didn’t yet know the Lord, and the Lord’s word hadn’t yet been revealed to him.)

A third time the Lord called Samuel. He got up, went to Eli, and said, “I’m here. You called me?”

Then Eli realized that it was the Lord who was calling the boy. So Eli said to Samuel, “Go and lie down. If he calls you, say, ‘Speak, Lord. Your servant is listening.’” So Samuel went and lay down where he’d been.

Then the Lord came and stood there, calling just as before, “Samuel, Samuel!” Samuel said, “Speak. Your servant is listening.”

Call to Worship

One:	All people are God’s Beloved.
Many:	Across races, nationalities, religions, sexual orientations—and all the ways we are distinctive from one another.
One:	We are all manifestations of God’s image. We are bound together in an inescapable network of mutuality and tied to a single garment of destiny.
Many:	God calls us into the unending work of justice, peace and love. The Spirit is present among us now.
One:	Let us delight in our diversity that offers glimpses of the mosaic of God’s beauty.
Many:	We are strengthened with God’s steadfast love and are transformed from despair and fatigue into hope-filled action.
One:	Under the shadow of God’s wings in this hour may we find rest and strength, renewal and hope.
Many:	We ask this, inspired by the example of Jesus and others who have caught the vision and who live for love.
All:	Let us worship our God together—Creator, Christ and Spirit—as we hear God calling us to faith and action.

Song O for a Church—Rev. Ann N. Graves

Tune: AZMON

O for a church with open doors that's been so long our dream,
Where faith and hope, and care for all show the love of Christ supreme!

With prayer and trust, the time has come to make our vision plain God grant us strength and energy and we shall our goal attain.

Then all who come may enter in, no barriers they'll find,
Where young and old, the weak, the strong,
may all join with hearts and mind.

O God of love, O Christ of peace, the Holy Spirit's power:
Break down the walls, unite us all making this your kindom come.

Opening Prayer

Holy One, we come here to listen and learn more about the common good. We want to see and work for love and laws that establish justice for all. Hearts must change for the Beloved Community to flourish, for your kindom to come. We will open our hearts to an ever-expanding vision of community. We will trust your Spirit to guide and move us between the present and the anticipated Realm of Justice. We will work for a world where lives are enriched by difference; where people of different genders, races and sexual orientations work together in Shalom for the good of the whole. We will work for a nation and world where persons focus on the content of their characters. For you, O God, are good and forgiving, abounding in steadfast love to all. Give ear, O God, to the prayers of your people. Amen.

Response Spirit of the Living God

Spirit of the living God fall afresh on me;
Spirit of the living God fall afresh on me.
Melt me, mold me, fill me, use me!
Spirit of the living God fall afresh on me.

Children's Time Children and Youth are invited to separate Zoom classrooms immediately following this Children's Time.

Blessing the Children Rainbow Sun (see page 15)

Written by Alan Stein; sung by Cassie Schulenburg

Scripture Psalm 139:1-18 (NRSV – New Revised Standard Version)

O Lord, you have searched me and known me. You know when I sit down and when I rise up; you discern my thoughts from far away. You search out my path and my lying down, and are acquainted with all my ways. Even before a word is on my tongue, O Lord, you know it completely. You hem me in, behind and before, and lay your hand upon me.

Such knowledge is too wonderful for me; it is so high that I cannot attain it. Where can I go from your spirit? Or where can I flee from your presence? If I ascend to heaven, you are there; if I make my bed in Sheol, you are there. If I take the wings of the morning and settle at the farthest limits of the sea, even there your hand shall lead me, and your right hand shall hold me fast. If I say, “Surely the darkness shall cover me, and the light around me become night,” even the darkness is not dark to you; the night is as bright as the day, for darkness is as light to you. For it was you who formed my inward parts; you knit me together in my mother’s womb.

I praise you, for I am fearfully and wonderfully made. Wonderful are your works; that I know very well. My frame was not hidden from you, when I was being made in secret, intricately woven in the depths of the earth. Your eyes beheld my unformed substance. In your book were written all the days that were formed for me, when none of them as yet existed.

How weighty to me are your thoughts, O God! How vast is the sum of them! I try to count them—they are more than the sand; I come to the end—I am still with you.

Words from new VP Kamala Harris about inclusion

What I want young women and girls to know is: You are powerful and your voice matters. You're going to walk into many rooms in your life and career where you may be the only one who looks like you or who has had the experiences you've had. Remember that when you are in those rooms, you are not alone. We are all in that room with you applauding you on. Cheering your voice. And just so proud of you. So you use that voice and be strong.

Let's speak the truth: People are protesting because Black people have been treated as less than human in America. Because our country has never fully addressed the systemic racism that has plagued our country since its earliest days. It is the duty of every American to fix. No longer can some wait on the sidelines, hoping for incremental change. In times like this, silence is complicity.

There will be people who say to you, 'You are out of your lane.' They are burdened by only having the capacity to see what has always been instead of what can be. But don't you let that burden you.

My parents would bring me to protests strapped tightly in my stroller, and my mother, Shyamala, raised my sister, Maya, and me to believe that it was up to us and every generation of Americans to keep on marching. She'd tell us 'Don't sit around and complain about things; do something.' So I did something. I devoted my life to making real the words carved in the United States Supreme Court: Equal justice under law.

While I may be the first woman in this office, I will not be the last.

Rainbow Sun written by PUCCer Alan Stein; sung by Cassie Schulenburg

If you seek a place of refuge
A tender shelter from the storm
We are here to give you comfort
We are here to keep you warm

Our arms reach out in welcome
As you reach out as well;
Together we're a family
Together we will dwell:

(Chorus):
No matter who you are,
No matter what you do,
We are one in Christ
In our great love for you;
For we're tied as one
In a rainbow sun
And our roots are strong and true;

Forming a tapestry
Of such diversity
We are woven tight
With colored threads of light,
For we're joined as one
In a rainbow sun
That will banish all the night.

We are, each of us, a blessing—
Whether centered or adrift—
But when we are bound together
It is such a special gift;

For our home is always your home;
It is here where you belong,
We are the special lyrics
As we live this special song (Chorus)

For together we are wondrous,
For together we're this song,
For in loving one another
We grow together ever strong;

As the tapestry is woven
With the many gifts you bring;
We open up our hearts to you
Affirming as we sing (Chorus)
... Under a blazing Rainbow Sun!

Long-Awaited Gift

Psalm 139:1-6, 13-18

Known and Loved

**O Lord, you have searched me and known me.*

My God, you see and understand all that I am.

*You know when I sit down and when I rise up;
you discern my thoughts from far away.*

You know even my most hidden thoughts.

*You search out my path and my lying down,
and are acquainted with all my ways.*

When I work, when I sleep, you are with me.

Even before a word is on my tongue,

O Lord, you know it completely.

When I speak, you know what I'm going to say before I do.

You hem me in, behind and before, and lay your hand upon me.

You are everywhere, even right here with me!

Such knowledge is too wonderful for me; it is so high that I cannot attain it.

I cannot imagine how you think or feel or create. You are so vast.

For it was you who formed my inward parts; you knit me together in my mother's womb.

And yet, you are close by, too. Always giving birth, always making new.

I praise you, for I am fearfully and wonderfully made.

Wonderful are your works; that I know very well.

You even made this sacred body that I call home.

My frame was not hidden from you, when I was being made in secret, intricately woven in the depths of the earth.

Your eyes beheld my unformed substance.

You know how I was made because you made me!

In your book were written all the days that were formed for me, when none of them as yet existed.

You write the past, you sculpt the future.

How weighty to me are your thoughts, O God! How vast is the sum of them!

I cannot weigh or measure you, God,

I try to count them—they are more than the sand;

I come to the end—I am still with you.

I only know that wherever I am, you are too. And that is enough.
