Welcome Song Morning Has Broken

Morning has broken like the first morning.

Blackbird has spoken like the first bird.

Praise for the singing, praise for the morning.

Praise for them springing fresh from the world.

Scripture Psalm 24 (NRSV - New Revised Standard Version)

The earth is the Lord's and all that is in it, the world, and those who live in it; for God has founded it on the seas, and established it on the rivers.

Who shall ascend the hill of the Lord? And who shall stand in God's holy place? Those who have clean hands and pure hearts, who do not lift up their souls to what is false, and do not swear deceitfully.

They will receive blessing from the Lord, and vindication from the God of their salvation. Such is the company of those who seek God, who seek the face of the God of Jacob.

Lift up your heads, O gates! and be lifted up, O ancient doors! that our God of glory may come in. Who is the God of glory? The Lord, strong and mighty, the Lord, mighty in battle. Lift up your heads, O gates! and be lifted up, O ancient doors! that our God of glory may come in.

Who is this God of glory? The Lord of hosts, God is the God of glory.

Scripture 2Samuel 6: 1-5, 12b-19 (NRSV)

David again gathered all the chosen men of Israel, thirty thousand. David and all the people with him set out and went from Baale-judah, to bring up from there the ark of God, which is called by the name of the LORD of hosts who is enthroned on the cherubim. They carried the ark of God on a new cart, and brought it out of the house of Abinadab, which was on the hill. Uzzah and Ahio, the sons of Abinadab, were driving the new cart with the ark of God; and Ahio went in front of the ark. David and all the house of Israel were dancing before the LORD with all their might, with songs and lyres and harps and tambourines and castanets and cymbals.

It was told King David, 'The LORD has blessed the household of Obed-edom and all that belongs to him, because of the ark of God.' So David went and brought up the ark of God from the house of Obed-edom to the city of David with rejoicing. David danced before the LORD with all his might; David was girded with a linen ephod. So David and all the house of Israel brought up the ark of the LORD with shouting, and with the sound of the trumpet.

They brought in the ark of the LORD, and set it in its place, inside the tent that David had pitched for it; and David offered burnt-offerings and offerings of well-being before the LORD. When David had finished offering the burnt-offerings and the offerings of well-being, he blessed the people in the name of the LORD of hosts, and distributed food among all the people, the whole multitude of Israel, both men and women, to each a cake of bread, a portion of meat, and a cake of raisins. Then all the people went back to their homes.

I have brought you out of Egypt; now I call.

Listen here, listen well:

When you live in gratitude you'll keep my law."

"Have no other gods before me, says the Lord God Most High.
Don't choose idols that you worship in God's place.

Know God's name, use it well.

Keep the Sabbath for it is God's gift of grace."

"Honor father, honor mother, and rejoice! God will bless you.

Take no life, for God loves every child on earth.

Celebrate gifts of love;

Take to heart what marriage promises are worth."

"Do not steal from one another, nor speak lies, hurting others;
Do not wish for what your neighbor has in greed."

Ten great Words, gifts from God,

Help us live in thanks for all we have received.

Pastoral Prayer & Prayers of the People

Lord's Prayer sung to the tune by Nate Stout

Our [Creator/Mother/Father/Holy One] who art in Heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on Earth as it is in Heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts as we forgive our debtors; and lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil. For thine is the Kingdom and the power and the glory forever. Amen.

[A variety of names for God are welcome here – including in the Lord's Prayer.]

Offering Our Gifts to God

Offering Interlude

Response Make Me A Servant

Make me a servant, humble and meek.
 Lord, let me lift up those who are weak.
 And may the prayer of my heart always be:
 Make me a servant, Make me a servant
 Make me a servant today...

Prayer of Dedication Tom Shuman

As we offer our treasure and hearts to you, O God, may they be used to pass on the promise of hope, of peace, of life, of community to all in need of your gifts and presence in their lives. Amen.

Song of Parting I Have Brought You Out of Egypt

NETTLETON 8.7.8.7 D (Come, Thou Fount of Every Blessing)

“I have brought you out of Egypt,” Moses heard the Lord God say.
“I have saved you! I have freed you! people, listen and obey.
Have no other gods before me; don’t make idols for yourselves.
I will judge those who reject me; worship me and no one else.”

“Do not use the Lord’s name wrongly,
use God’s name for what is good.
Keep the Sabbath; keep it holy; rest and worship as you should.
Honor father, honor mother; do not murder! Honor life!
Do not wander to another from your husband or your wife.”

God continued these commandments:

“Do not steal another’s things;
And you shall not bear false witness—
see the anguish that it brings.
Do not seek with bitter longing what you see across the street.
Keep these laws and find within them
where my love and justice meet.”

God of grace, we see your promise in the covenant you give.
For your law is wise and wondrous as it shows us how to live.
Loving God and loving neighbor, may we follow where you call.
Saved by grace, may we together seek to live your gracious law.

Benediction

Today! Speaker Series—Impressions of Norway

Presented by Kristen (daughter of Mike & Peggy)

Sunday, July 11 | 11:15am | via Zoom (see June 27 for link)

Another young person returns to her home church to educate and entertain us. She is Kristen Mohl, who resides in Norway with her spouse and children. And therein lies the source of our genuine interest in Kristen and her life abroad. Norway is not the typical place one would expect an American from the Midwest to permanently reside. Kristen has a story to tell, not only about things unique to her, but also her impressions and observations about Norway. Those of us, who did not embark on a life beyond our home country, likely have many stereotypical views of what we think about Norway. Kristen will set us straight and provide a fascinating account of this unique land and her life there. This is not so much a travel log, as it is an account of a journey to a unique place and what she discovered.

The Other Side of the Hill Documentary

Virtual Screening July 10 - July 25th

Other Side of the Hill is a new film that will be available this summer through IPL for free congregational screenings and individual viewing at home between July 10-25. Where can East & West, Republicans & Democrats, find the common ground needed to address climate change? How can industry and environmentalists work hand in hand? And how can local economies find opportunity in a lower emissions future?

No matter where you are located this important story will inspire you to reach out and bridge the divide. We are more alike than we are different.

Other Side of the Hill explores the impacts of a changing climate in rural Eastern Oregon – as seen through the eyes of local leaders on the ground. From innovative timber operations to large scale solar, our film amplifies the voices of rural communities often left unheard, and shines a light on stories of progress & hope. In a time of unprecedented cultural divide between rural and urban communities, we find common ground in an urgency to address a changing landscape. The film is 30 minutes long.

REGISTRATION REQUIRED FOR FREE ONLINE SCREENING JULY 10-25.

July 2021 Alzheimer's News

The Food and Drug Administration (FDA) approval of aducanumab (Aduhelm™) from Biogen — the first drug to slow the progression of Alzheimer's disease — is a milestone in the treatment of the disease and a beginning of a completely new future for Alzheimer's treatments. This treatment, while not a cure, is pivotal and current progress in science is significant. We expect this will be the first of a number of treatments to come.

As a new type of Alzheimer's treatment, aducanumab addresses the disease in a way that has never been done before. This therapy slows progression of the disease, rather than only addressing symptoms.

This infusion treatment will reduce the buildup of amyloid plaques, one of the hallmarks of Alzheimer's in the brain. Thus, giving the patient more time to enjoy family and doing things they like in the early stages of the disease. It does require early diagnosis from a qualified doctor or neurologist. And the diagnosis must be Alzheimer's, not dementia.

Early detection in Alzheimer's disease is more important now than ever with a treatment available. Early diagnosis has long demonstrated better health outcomes for individuals and their caregivers. If you or a loved one is experiencing memory changes, the Alzheimer's Association strongly encourages speaking with a health care provider for a thorough evaluation, diagnosis and to discuss treatment options.

You can learn more by going to www.alz.org/help-support/resources or the Alzheimer's Helpline which is accessible 24/7 via 800-272-3900 and staffed by master's level clinicians to assist with crisis situations, decision making, and disease information. You can find virtual dementia caregiver resources online at alz.org/covid19help. Tools and support are also available in Spanish.

7th Sunday after Pentecost

July 11, 2021

Seventh Sunday after Pentecost

2 Samuel 6:1-5, 12b-19

God-inspired Joy

Last year at this time, several months into the COVID pandemic and not an end in sight, Rev. Rebekah Moyer of Emmanuel UCC, in Allentown, PA was in search of joy. She thought wistfully of the joy that she experienced at Christmas, and wondered if others might want that joy, too. So, she and the congregation she serves initiated Christmas In July.

Pastor Becky, as she is known, said in her sermon that day “I thought about all of the hustle and bustle that goes along with the Christmas season and all of the chaos that comes during that season. I also thought about how quickly baby Jesus is packed away and our Christmas “high” is taken away. ...As I was reflecting on all of this I couldn’t help but think to myself: After the Christmas holiday is over, how many of us put Christ back in a shoe box? I started to wonder what happens to Christmas if we take away the ribbons and the bows. If we forget about Santa Claus and decorating Christmas trees. If we don’t have to worry about baking cookies or pies or serving extravagant dinners. If we don’t have to worry about running around looking for the perfect Christmas present. If we don’t have to worry about the lines we usually have to stand in at the store and the irritated faces of strangers when you take the last of whatever the “popular” present is that year. If we get rid of the frustration of wrapping gifts. And I thought that maybe, just maybe, July is an opportunity for us. Perhaps we can forget all of the extra stuff that we have added to the season and really celebrate Christ. We can celebrate what the birth of Christ really means to us without the commercialization, without the pressures that come along with everything surrounding Christmas. ...I was reminded that, although the nights are short and the weather is warm, we need that light and that hope. We need that joy that comes with hearing the story of the baby lying in the manger all of the time. The more I thought about it, the more I realized that the Christmas story does not belong in a box, tucked away somewhere safe. I think we need to hear the miracle of the birth of Christ throughout the year. Have you put Jesus in a box in a closet, attic, or basement with the Christmas stuff? Have you packed him away with the palm fronds and the Easter decorations? Is your joy for the Savior on layaway with the gifts you have set aside for December? Elizabeth and Mary were filled with so much joy that they could not hold it in. Mary’s pregnancy, her child, brought the One who would reshape the world, the One who would confront injustice and deliver new hope, the very presence of God. It is time for us to find him again, the baby in the manger. It is time for us to find joy. The most wonderful news, he is always looking for you, waiting for you. Christmas joy is not a single day or month. It is for us, followers of Christ, a way of life.”
