12th Sunday after Pentecost

Sunday, August 15, 2021 | 10:00am

Meditation

You must give birth to your images. They are the future waiting to be born. Fear not the strangeness you feel. The future must enter you long before it happens. Just wait for the birth, for the hour of new clarity.

~Rainer Maria Rilke

Welcome Let us know you are here!

Passing the Peace of Christ

"May the peace of Christ be with you."
(We are intentional about bringing more peace into the world.)

Prelude

Lighting of the Candles & Ringing of the Bell

Welcome Song You Are Welcome Here

Scripture Ephesians 5:15-20 (CEB – Common English Bible)

So be careful to live your life wisely, not foolishly. Take advantage of every opportunity because these are evil times. Because of this, don't be ignorant, but understand the Lord's will. Don't get drunk on wine, which produces depravity. Instead, be filled with the Spirit in the following ways: speak to each other with psalms, hymns, and spiritual songs; sing and make music to the Lord in your hearts; always give thanks to God for everything in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ.

*Call to Worship Gather Us In

	Gather Us In
One:	Here in this place new light is streaming. Now is the darkness vanished away. See in this space our fears and our dreamings, brought here to you in the light of this day.
Many:	Gather us in, the lost and forsaken. Gather us in, the blind and the lame. Call to us now and we shall awaken. We shall arise at the sound of our name.
One:	We are the young, our lives are a mystery. We are the old who yearn for your face. We have been sung throughout all of history, called to be light to the whole human race.
Many:	Gather us in, the rich and the haughty. Gather us in, the proud and the strong. Give us a heart so meek and so lowly. Give us the courage to enter the song.
One:	Not in the dark of buildings confining. Not in some heaven light years away. But here in this place the new light is shining. Now is the kindom, now is the day.
Many:	Gather us in and hold us forever. Gather us in and make us your own. Nourish us well and teach us to fashion lives that are holy and hearts that are true.
All:	Let us worship our God together—Creator, Christ and Spirit.

*Opening Prayer UCC Statement of Faith

We believe in you, O God, Eternal Spirit, God of our Savior Jesus Christ and our God, and to your deeds we testify:

You call the worlds into being, create persons in your own image, and set before each one the ways of life and death.

You seek in holy love to save all people from aimlessness and sin.

You judge people and nations by your righteous will declared through prophets and apostles.

In Jesus Christ, the man of Nazareth, our crucified and risen Savior, you have come to us and shared our common lot, conquering sin and death and reconciling the world to yourself.

You bestow upon us your Holy Spirit, creating and renewing the church of Jesus Christ, binding in covenant faithful people of all ages, tongues, and races.

You call us into your church to accept the cost and joy of discipleship, to be your servants in the service of others, to proclaim the gospel to all the world and resist the powers of evil, to share in Christ's baptism and eat at his table, to join him in his passion and victory.

You promise to all who trust you forgiveness of sins and fullness of grace, courage in the struggle for justice and peace, your presence in trial and rejoicing, and eternal life in your realm which has no end.

Blessing and honor, glory and power be unto you. Amen.

*Response Spirit of the Living God

Spirit of the living God fall afresh on me; Spirit of the living God fall afresh on me. Melt me, mold me, fill me, use me! Spirit of the living God fall afresh on me.

Children's Time

Children and Youth are invited to Outdoor Sunday School (Fellowship Hall if weather a challenge) immediately following this Children's Time. We will also be on Zoom for those at home.

Blessing the Children Jesus Loves the Little Children

Jesus loves the little children, All the children of the world. Every child in every land, Jesus holds them by the hand. Jesus loves the little children of the world. Scripture Ephesians 5:15-20 (NRSV – New Revised Standard Version) Be careful then how you live, not as unwise people but as wise, making the most of the time, because the days are evil. So do not be foolish, but understand what the will of the Lord is. Do not get drunk with wine, for that is debauchery; but be filled with the Spirit, as you sing psalms and hymns and spiritual songs among yourselves, singing and making melody to the Lord in your hearts, giving thanks to God at all times and for everything in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ.

Moment of Silent Reflection

Our [Creator/Mother/Father/Holy One] who art in Heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on Earth as it is in Heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts as we forgive our debtors; and lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil. For thine is the Kingdom and the power and the glory forever. Amen.

PUCC Inquirers

Thursday, August 19 | 7:00 - 8:15pm | Heritage Room and on Zoom Inquirer: someone who wants to know more ... about Parkway UCC The next PARKWAY UCC Inquirers' Gathering will be in the Heritage Room and on Zoom. Our goals that evening include:

- getting to know one another a bit more
- discussing some key issues of faith
- describing Parkway's worship, outreach, education, leadership, fellowship
- taking a look at our denomination, the United Church of Christ
- sharing ideas about the exciting future of Parkway UCC
- soliciting your thoughts on how we can be a more welcoming and inviting community of faith
- answering any of your questions

You will find our time together meaningful and informative.

Some churches call this sort of gathering a New Members Class—we do not. While we do know that there are a number of people who have expressed interest in becoming formal members of the church, we do not assume that Inquirers are seeking membership. We just want to be hospitable, get to know you and have the chance to express gratitude for your presence among us.

Please wear a mask to keep everyone safe.

150th Anniversary Celebration of Parkway UCC Historic Sanctuary

Sunday, August 22 | 10:00 am worship | 11:00 am—12:30 pm Sanctuary and Elm Lawn Cemetery tours | PUCC Historic Sanctuary lawn, 2840 N Ballas Rd, east side of Ballas Rd

On August 20, 1871, the building known today as the Historic Sanctuary of Parkway United Church of Christ was dedicated.

On Sunday, August 22, 2021, the 150th anniversary of this special day will be celebrated during the 10 am worship service. After the service, the Historic Sanctuary will be open for tours. Church volunteers will be available to provide background on the building. Members of the Elm Lawn Cemetery Board will also be providing tours of the cemetery located immediately behind the Historic Sanctuary.

In 1885 a 686 pound bell with hangings and hammer was purchased for $177.25 and a tradition was begun that continues to this day. The bell rang three times as the Lord's Prayer was recited during worship so farmers in the field, unable to abandon work to attend church, could stop and pray with the congregation.

There is more to the story of this historic building. Join us on Sunday, August 22nd to learn "the rest of the story!"

Please read the first half of the book or up to page 100 for TED on August 24.

Minnie Remembers by Donna Swanson

God, my hands are old. I've never said that out loud before, but they are. I was so proud of them once. They were soft like the velvet smoothness of a firm, ripe peach. Now the softness is more like worn-out sheets or withered leaves. When did these slender, graceful hands become gnarled, shrunken claws? When, God? They lie here in my lap, naked reminders of this body that has served me too well.

How long has it been since someone touched me? Twenty years? Twenty years I've been a widow; Respected. Smiled at. But never touched. Never held so close that loneliness was blotted out. I remember how my mother used to hold me, God. When I was hurt in spirit or in flesh, she would gather me close, stroke my silky hair and caress my back with her warm hands. O God. I'm so lonely!

I remember the first boy who ever kissed me. We were both so new at that. The taste of young lips and popcorn, the feeling inside of mysteries to come. I remember Hank and the babies. How else can I remember them but together? Out of the fumbling, awkward attempts of new lovers came the babies. And as they grew, so did our love. And God, Hank didn't seem to mind if my body thickened and faded a little. He still loved it and touched it. and we didn't mind if we were no longer beautiful. And the children hugged me a lot. O God, I'm lonely.

God, why didn't we raise the kids to be silly and affectionate as well as dignified and proper? You see, they do their duty. They drive up in their fine cars. They come to my room and pay their respects. They chatter brightly and reminisce. But they don't touch me. They call me "Mom" or "Mother" or "Grandma". Never Minnie. My mother called me Minnie. So did my friends. Hank called me Minnie, too. But they're gone now, and so is Minnie. Only Grandma is here.

And God, she's lonely!

Use of Sense by Kenneth Samuel, UCC pastor – Stone Mountain, Georgia

Take notice, you senseless ones among the people. Does he who fashioned the ear not hear? Does he who formed the eye not see? - Psalm 94:8-9 (NIV)

My favorite superhero is Spiderman. One of the things I like most about Spiderman is his spider-sense. Originating as a tingling feeling in the back of his skull, spider-sense gives Spiderman the amazing ability to sense imminent danger, and thereby take preemptive action to avoid or rectify calamity. Even under normal conditions, spider-sense enables Spiderman to navigate darkened rooms, instinctively avoiding obstacles and hazards.

Spiders themselves are equipped with amazing sensory organs. They sense the slightest movement or vibration through hairs and tiny slits distributed over much of their body. A spider's sensitivity to threat and danger is finely tuned.

But we don't have to be superheroes or spiders to sense when something is wrong. God created us with sensitive capabilities to notice and to have insight; to pay attention and to listen; to react and to be proactive. Much of the peril in which we find ourselves is due to our lack of sensitivity to what is imminently looming in our very presence.

We often ignore the signs of danger along the road of our pursuits. We preoccupy ourselves with business as usual while we fail to pay attention to the handwriting on the wall.

The crying of an infant is a sign that something is not right. But in certain impoverished countries, suffering infants stop crying and suffer in silence, because they sense that no one around them has the capability or the sensitivity to relieve their suffering.

Our greatest human tragedy may well be the numbing of our God-given sensitivities.

Prayer: God, let me notice through your eyes. Let me pay attention through your ears. Let me love with your heart. Amen.

12th Sunday after Pentecost

August 15, 2021

1 Kings 2:10-12, 3:3-14 Wisdom Quest

Jesus said, "For where your treasure is, there will your heart be also" (Matthew 6:21). Faith and finance are inextricably bound together. Faith entails values, and those values call for embodiment in all areas of life. How we mobilize financial resources in the spending and making of money is one reflection of how our values are expressed and put into action.

This perspective is the basis for the Pension Boards-United Church of Christ's new publication: Generations: A Journal of Faith and Finance, an online magazine that explores the places in our economic lives where our faith values meet our financial obligations and opportunities.

Generations features articles and commentary on socially responsible investing, the faith dimensions of economic and global issues, interfaith perspectives, church finance and stewardship work, issues related to personal debt, and more. Writers come from the worlds of both church—within and beyond the United Church of Christ—and finance.

In the first issue, Deenabandhu Manchala, Area Executive for Southern Asia, Wider Church Ministries, UCC, reports on anti-human trafficking efforts during a pandemic: "... while hurrying the world onto a frightening path towards an unknown future, [the pandemic] has also exposed more clearly our world's existing systemic greed, sharp economic disparities, war economies, continued environmental destruction, and dehumanization of vulnerable people."

Timothy Smith, former Executive Director of the Interfaith Center on Corporate Responsibility, looks at the UCC's involvement in socially responsible investing, in "The UCC: A Force for Change 50 Years Later." And in a provocative article, former UCC General Minister and President, John Thomas asks, "What does it mean to be religious but not spiritual?" and explores the limits of the "dutiful Christian."

Read Generations: A Journal of Faith and Finance at www.pbucc.org. The most recent issue—with the theme "Thinking Globally, Acting Locally," was released in May of this year.
