“May the peace of Christ be with you.”

Lighting of the Candles & Ringing of the Bell

*Call to Worship

One:	For the times we find the good news more of a burden than a joy,
Many:	Lord have mercy.
One:	For the times we draw distinctions between us and them,
Many:	Lord have mercy.
One:	For the times we wander alone and leave your community,
Many:	Lord have mercy.
One:	Hear the good news: by the love of Christ, we are forgiven, and free to live in love, serve with compassion, and worship in community.
All:	Let us worship our God together—Creator, Christ and Spirit.

*Opening Prayer

Lord, God of new beginnings, we come before you in humble worship. You made the Word flesh to bring your good news into the world, and you call us to share that news with others. But often we neglect our responsibilities and ignore our callings. For this we confess. Hear the confessions we offer you aloud or in our silence. Amen.

*Song You Are Welcome Here

Children's Time Please return to your seats for this One Family Worship.

Blessing the Children This is Where Children Belong

Scripture Mark 6:6b-13 (Good News Bible)

Then Jesus went to the villages around there, teaching the people. He called the twelve disciples together and sent them out two by two. He gave them authority over the evil spirits and ordered them, "Don't take anything with you on the trip except a walking stick—no bread, no beggar's bag, no money in your pockets. Wear sandals, but don't carry an extra shirt." He also told them, "Wherever you are welcomed, stay in the same house until you leave that place. If you come to a town where people do not welcome you or will not listen to you, leave it and shake the dust off your feet. That will be a warning to them!"

So, they went out and preached that people should turn away from their sins. They drove out many demons, and rubbed olive oil on many sick people and healed them.

My Lord, what a morning. My Lord, what a morning.
O, my Lord, what a morning when the stars begin to fall.

You'll hear the trumpet sound
To wake the nations underground
Looking to my God's right hand.
When the stars begin to fall. (Refrain)

You'll hear the people moan
to wake the nations underground.
Looking to my God's right hand.
When the stars begin to fall. (Refrain)

Jesus Sends the Twelve

Unit 7: The Power of the Kingdom

LAST WEEK

Jesus heals a woman and raises a young girl from the dead (Mark 5:21-43).

THIS WEEK

Jesus returns to his hometown and finds that there is little faith among them. Jesus then sends out the twelve disciples to heal and spread the good news (Mark 6:1-29).

Story Summary

Preaching the good news of God's love is challenging. When Jesus teaches in his hometown of Nazareth, his authority in the synagogue is questioned. Jesus sends out the twelve disciples and gives them the authority to preach the good news and heal people. He warns them that they and their message will not always be welcome. Although the power of God's love is everywhere, some may not see it, and others may be threatened by it. King Herod abuses his earthly authority to execute John the Baptist, the one who prepared the way for Jesus.

Practice: Prayer

Can people see a glimpse of God's kingdom in your life? Can they see God's love and forgiveness in how you live and treat others, even through your brokenness? Pray for God to give you wisdom and guidance to live in God's love and the inspiration and boldness to both show and tell others about God's kingdom. Think about people in your life with whom you can share God's love and pray for them.

The Point

We are to spread the good news of the kingdom.

Bible Nuts & Bolts:

What Is the Kingdom of God?

One of the strongest themes in the Gospels is the kingdom of God. When we pray the Lord's Prayer, we pray for God's kingdom to come. This kingdom is not a physical place on Earth. The kingdom of God exists whenever people live in God's love and do God's work. In this way, the kingdom of God is here and now. However, that is not all. God's kingdom is something that has not arrived yet. We see glimpses of God's kingdom in our world and in our time, but God promises to remake our world into a place of peace, love, and justice; a place without any suffering or evil. The good news is that this work has already begun, and we are a part of God's kingdom.

NEXT WEEK

The transfiguration reveals Jesus' authority as the Messiah, the Son of God (Mark 8:27-9:8).

Going Deeper

As you hear and study these stories each week, consider what God has to say to you and your family. What is God's message to us? Consider the following basic pattern as a way of forming family devotions:

- ✦ Light a candle to help you focus this time as "God time." Pray a simple prayer together.
- ✦ Take a moment to check in with each other; what are each person's "highs" and "lows" today?
- ✦ Read aloud from the Daily Bible Readings from below. Discuss the questions following each.
- ✦ End with a blessing, by simply tracing a cross on each other's forehead. The Lord's Prayer is a good way to end your devotion time. If you used a candle, extinguish it as a sign of the end of the devotions.

Note: This is only a suggested pattern. It will vary with your household's context and patterns. What works best for you? First thing in the morning? Over breakfast? Bed time? Be creative and flexible with how you practice and keep your devotions!

Daily Bible Readings

Sunday—Read Mark 6:17-29

Herod executes John the Baptist.

- What does Herod's promise to his daughter suggest about the thought we put into our promises?
- Why do some people feel threatened by the truth?

Monday—Read Mark 6:30-34

Jesus seeks time away.

- What message are people longing to hear?
- When is the last time you took time alone with God?

Tuesday—Read Mark 6:35-44

Jesus feeds the multitudes.

- What needs do you feel are too big to be met?
- What are the limitations of God's provision?

Wednesday—Read Mark 6:45-56

Jesus walks on water.

- What storm in your life causes you to fear?
- What are Jesus' words to you today?

Thursday—Read Psalm 89:5-11

God rules the heavens and the sea.

- What belongs to you?
- What belongs to God?

Friday—Read Mark 8:22-26

Jesus heals a man from blindness.

- In what way does Jesus give us spiritual sight?
- Why was the man not healed completely the first time?

Saturday—Read Mark 8:27-38

Jesus is misunderstood by his own disciples.

- How do we set our mind on divine rather than human things?
- Have you ever been ashamed to be a follower of Jesus?

Tuesday Evening Dialogue – February 13

2nd & 4th Tuesday | 6:00pm potluck | 7:00pm discussion | Heritage Rm Please join us in the Heritage Room as we finish up our discussion of The Book of Charlie. We will also be choosing our next book to read. This is the true story of the author's neighbor, 109-year old Charlie. Von Drehle came to understand that Charlie's resilience and willingness to grow made this remarkable man a master in the art of thriving through times of dramatic change. The Book of Charlie is a gospel of grit—the inspiring story of one man's journey through a century of upheaval. The history that unfolds through Charlie's story reminds you that the United States has always been a divided nation, a questing nation, an inventive nation—a nation of Charlies in the rollercoaster pursuit of a good and meaningful life.

Go to Jerusalem: A Lenten Devotional

Sundays during Lent, 9-9:30 am | Heritage Room

This Lent, imagine placing your hand in the hand of Jesus and journeying with him to Jerusalem.

In these daily devotions for the 40 days of Lent and Holy Week, pastor and scholar Mary Alice Mulligan leads us on a self-reflective journey to discover what it really means to follow Jesus. As you journey to Jerusalem, you'll reflect on the scriptures in which Jesus calls on his Disciples to leave everything and follow him, is baptized and announces his ministry, predicts his own death, clears the temple and pledges to rebuild it in three days, and proclaims God's love for all.

Entries begin with the darkness of Ash Wednesday and culminate with the glory of Easter morning. These concise entries include scripture, reflections, journaling prompts, suggested spiritual practices, and a prayer. Entries are undated, making this a perennial resource.

We'll be offering this devotional the Sunday prior to Ash Wednesday, Feb. 11. They will also be available upon request after Ash Wednesday.

Every Sunday at 9:00 a.m. in the Heritage Hall, we'll come together to reflect on how our journeys are going, the challenges we've faced, and kernels of truth gleaned as we grow closer to God, that we may support each other in covenantal fellowship together.

For more information, or would like a devotional mailed to you, please contact Gabriel Requadt gabriel@parkwayucc.org (314) 872-9330.

MONTH OF GRACE + PRAYER (A Retreat in Everyday Life)

Make 2024 the year when your relationship with God blossomed by participating in the Month of Grace + Prayer retreat in everyday life. Pray on your own each day and meet privately with a spiritual companion for one hour, once per week for four consecutive weeks. This retreat is personalized to what you are hoping for, whether that is to make more time for prayer, to learn new ways to pray, to pray about a certain issue in your life, deepen your personal relationship with Jesus, or to receive whatever God is offering to you at this time. During the weekly sessions, your spiritual companion will listen with love and affirmation, offer questions that will lead you deeper into your prayer experiences and offer prayer suggestions for the coming week. Offered in person and completely virtually, all adults are welcome regardless of denomination or affiliation. Committed couples also have the option to participate as a couple.

The retreat will begin with a 90-minute group gathering (in person/virtual) of all participants on Sunday, Feb. 25. In person meetings with spiritual companions take place at church on Monday mornings, afternoons or evenings, and virtual meetings are scheduled on any day and time mutually convenient with the companion and participant. All participants will gather again in celebration on Sunday, March 24. For even more information or to register, visit: www.momentsofgraceandprayer.org or contact Clarence Heller clarenceheller@gmail.com; 314.258.9066. There is no registration fee, but retreatants are invited to share the costs of the retreat as they are able.

Testimonial

I participated in this retreat a few years ago. My prayer partner was Sister Pat. She was spiritual and encouraging. I kept a journal which I still return to from time to time. I highly recommend this opportunity. ~PUCCer

Gateway Open and Affirming Convocation

Saturday, March 2nd; 8:30am-3:00pm

Join area churches at Parkway UCC for an inspirational day of learning and providing support for the LGBTQIA Community. Participants can attend three workshops during the day following a worship service and keynote address. We encourage Parkway members to live up to their commitment from years ago when Parkway voted to become ONA and learn more about the movement and how we can be partners with the LGBTQIAI community. The workshops are led by experienced individuals who are well-prepared. The worship service and keynote address are inspirational. This year, Rev. Dr. Katrina Roseboro-Marsh, UCC ONA Coalition's Executive Director, will give the Keynote address. We are encouraging Parkway members to attend, but also volunteer to assist in various roles. Thanks for letting us know if you can volunteer and where you would be willing to serve. For more info, contact Carol Cobb ccjacob@aol.com or Greg Schmelig greg\_schmelig@hotmail.com. Let's learn and love the LGBTQIAI+ Community!
