Lord, lis-ten to your chil-dren pray - ing, _____

Lord, send your Spir-it in this place; _____

Lord, lis-ten to your chil-dren pray - ing, _____ send us love, send us power, send us grace. _____

Scripture Psalm 130 | Inclusive Language Psalter

Out of the depths have I called to you, O God; God, hear my voice; let your ears consider well the voice of my supplication. If you, God, were to note what is done amiss, O God, who could stand? For there is forgiveness with you; therefore, you shall be feared. I wait for God; my soul waits for God; in God’s word is my hope. My soul waits for God, more than sentries for the morning, more than sentries for the morning. O Israel, wait for God, for with God there is mercy. With God there is plenteous redemption, and God shall redeem Israel from all their sins.

*Call to Worship

One:	God is our past, present and future.
Many:	God is our shelter and our home.
One:	God is our inspiration and encouragement.
Many:	God is still speaking and is eager to listen to us.
One:	We are called to respect one another's past, be available to one another in the present and build a beloved future together.
Many:	We are called to be safe spaces for one another.
One:	We are meant to support one another and lean on one another whenever we feel unsure or unsteady.
Many:	We are meant to choose our words wisely and to listen more than we speak.
One:	We are meant to share love, peace and reassurance.
All:	Let us worship our God together—Creator, Christ and Spirit.

*Opening Prayer Cheryl Lindsay

Holy One, we bring the concerns of the day, the burdens of our hearts, gratitude for your presence, and hope for the future. We gather as people in need and with abundance, in despair and with joy, in uncertainty and with confidence. We rest in the assurance that wherever we are on life's journey, you receive us with love, compassion, and acceptance. Embolden us to be welcoming and hospitable to one another as we gather in your name, to hear your voice, and to give you thanks. Amen.

Scripture John 6:35, 41-51 | NRSV - New Revised Standard Version

Jesus said to them, "I am the bread of life. Whoever comes to me will never be hungry, and whoever believes in me will never be thirsty." Then the Jews began to complain about him because he said, "I am the bread that came down from heaven." They were saying, "Is not this Jesus, the son of Joseph, whose father and mother we know? How can he now say, 'I have come down from heaven'?" Jesus answered them, "Do not complain among yourselves. No one can come to me unless drawn by God who sent me; and I will raise that person up on the last day. It is written in the prophets, 'And they shall all be taught by God.' Everyone who has heard and learned from God comes to me. Not that anyone has seen God except the one who is from God; he has seen God. Very truly, I tell you, whoever believes has eternal life. I am the bread of life. Your ancestors ate the manna in the wilderness, and they died. This is the bread that comes down from heaven, so that one may eat of it and not die. I am the living bread that came down from heaven. Whoever eats of this bread will live forever; and the bread that I will give for the life of the world is my flesh."

Our [Creator/Mother/Father/Holy One] who art in Heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on Earth as it is in Heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts as we forgive our debtors; and lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil. For thine is the Kingdom and the power and the glory forever. Amen.

Speaker Series Occasional opportunities after worship at 11:15am "Immersion in El Salvador," by Parkway Member, Sue Moellering.

August 18 | 11:15am | Heritage Room

The trip was sponsored by International Partners in Mission ("IPM"), an organization that has been conducting these trips since 1974. It is NOT a vacation or a mission or volunteer opportunity. IPM describes the adventure as "Transformative Travel" that aims to create a powerful bond between the visitors and the people of El Salvador that can lead to social change.

The focus is on person-to-person cross cultural exchange. Participants walk in solidarity with communities their project partners serve. Sue will recount her experiences on the trip and its impact on her thereafter, along with insights into the people of El Salvador and their culture.

Tuesday Afternoon Dialogue – August 20

1st & 3rd Tuesday | 1:45pm fellowship | 2:00-3:00pm discussion

Zoom Link (312) 626-6799; Meeting ID: 836 7061 7428; Passcode: 480007

You are invited to stop in on Zoom on August 20th and join in on discussing TAD's first book for the 24/25 year, Somehow: Thoughts on Love by Anne Lamott. Fellowship and social time starts at 1:45, and we'll start the book discussion at 2. Typically, there are 6-10 people in the discussion. Whether or not you've ever participated in a book discussion group before, this group is for you. We'd love to have you. We'll discuss the first 5 chapters on August 6th, and finish the book on August 20th.

From Penguin Random House: "Love is our only hope," Anne Lamott writes in this perceptive new book. "It is not always the easiest choice, but it is always the right one, the noble path, the way home to safety, no matter how bleak the future looks."

"In Somehow: Thoughts on Love, Lamott explores the transformative power that love has in our lives: how it surprises us, forces us to confront uncomfortable truths, reminds us of our humanity, and guides us forward. "Love just won't be pinned down," she says. "It is in our very atmosphere" and lies at the heart of who we are. We are, Lamott says, creatures of love.

Somehow is Anne Lamott's twentieth book, and in it she draws from her own life and experience to delineate the intimate and elemental ways that love buttresses us in the face of despair as it galvanizes us to believe that tomorrow will be better than today. Full of the compassion and humanity that have made Lamott beloved by millions of readers, Somehow is classic Anne Lamott: funny, warm, and wise."

As in past years, Parkway is participating in Isaiah 58's Back-to-School program. We were asked to donate 160 boxes of 12-count colored pencils, and if possible, 160 boxes of 10-count washable markers. If you are shopping and see school supplies (especially on Tax-Free weekend) please consider purchasing some boxes. Also, Isaiah 58 gives out new underwear with the school supplies, so we will have a collection box for those as well. Contact Sally Dodge s.dodge@hotmail.com

Young Adult LifeGroup Hosting Opportunity

We are trying to get a LifeGroup going for young adults. We had the idea of older congregants hosting the meetings in their homes as a form of intergenerational fellowship. It would help younger people get to know some of the more seasoned members! This would be pretty lowkey for the host family. Mainly, we would just be wanting a place to gather. So, if you're able to provide an open space in your home for us to do our fellowship, that would be the main thing. You wouldn't be expected to participate in the meeting. Granted, if you provided refreshments, that would be greatly welcome, though not expected.

At the moment, we are looking to have our first meeting in September and at a frequency of once a month. We may look to meet more frequently the more people show up. We were thinking on having our meeting on Thursday evenings at 6pm.

Let me know if this sounds like something you would be interested in hosting in your home, and other thoughts or questions you might have. If we have multiple families interested, we can certainly put your homes in rotation, changing homes once a month, especially if it became more regular. Reach out to Gabriel R. gabriel@parkwayucc.org to let him know if you're available to help!

Don't fret if you aren't a trained bocce professional ... when we arrive, there will be training to go over the game and its rules ~ no prior knowledge of bocce is needed!

To sign up or find more information, please contact kevin@parkwayucc.org

* A free SOMO volunteer t-shirt is part of the deal!

August 2024 Alzheimer's News

A protein called Reelin keeps popping up in brains that resist aging and Alzheimer's. This protein helps assemble the brain early in life, and also appears to protect it from Alzheimer's and other diseases of aging. Three studies in the past year suggest Reelin helps maintain thinking and memory in ailing brains, and that when Reelin levels fall, neurons become more vulnerable. There is growing evidence the Reelin acts as a "protective factor" in the brain says Li-Huei Tsai, a professor at MIT. "I think we're on to something important for Alzheimer's, Tsai said. Their research has inspired efforts to develop a drug that boosts Reelin or helps it function better, as a way to stave off cognitive decline. "You don't have to be a genius to be like,' more Reelin, that's the solution'," says Dr. Joseph Arboleda-Velasques of Harvard Medical School and Massachusetts Eye and Ear. "And now we have the tools to do that."

You can learn more by going to www.alz.org/help-support/resources or the Alzheimer's Helpline which is accessible 24/7 via 800-272-3900 and staffed by master's level clinicians to assist with crisis situations, decision making, and disease information.
