Scripture

Micah 6:8

God has told you, human one, what is good and what the Lord requires from you: to do justice, embrace faithful love, and walk humbly with your God.

Proverbs 31:8-9

Speak out on behalf of the voiceless, and for the rights of all who are vulnerable. Speak out in order to judge with righteousness and to defend the needy and the poor.

Proverbs 3:27-28

Don't withhold good from someone who deserves it, when it is in your power to do so. Don't say to your neighbor, 'Go and come back; I'll give it to you tomorrow,' when you have it.

Matthew 25:40

Then will come the reply to them, 'I assure you that when you have done it for one of the least of these brothers and sisters of mine, you have done it for me.'

John 6, selected verses

Andrew said to Jesus, "There is a boy here who has five barley loaves and two fish. But what are they among so many people?" Jesus said, "Make the people sit down." Now there was a great deal of grass in the place, so they sat down, about five thousand in all. Then Jesus took the loaves, and when he had given thanks he distributed them to those who were seated; so also the fish, as much as they wanted. When they were satisfied, he told his disciples, "Gather up the fragments left over, so that nothing may be lost." So they gathered them up, and from the fragments of the five barley loaves, left by those who had eaten, they filled twelve baskets.

Call to Worship Bread for the World

One:	From the farthest reaches of our world - we hear the call to come and worship.
Many:	We come from the global south, from the lands of the North; we come from East and West to sit in community with each other.
One:	We come as strangers, pilgrims on our way to God's holy mountain.
Many:	We come as those who are hungry, as those who are fed.
One:	We come as those who are wanting and as those who are filled in abundance.
Many:	We come as friends, co-laborers in the fields of justice, working for the common good of God's people far and near.
One:	We belong to one another across the globe.
Many:	We seek the common good in one another and seek to meet the needs of all who hunger and thirst.
All:	Let us worship our God together—Creator, Christ and Spirit.

Song Where Is Bread?

Words by Carolyn Winfrey Gillette
(tune: Abbott's Leigh)

"Where is bread?" the great crowd murmured —
Thousands strong, yet all in need.
"Where is bread?" your people wondered,
Faced with such a crowd to feed.
Who, Lord Jesus, could have guessed it?
One small boy brought food to share.
Taking what he gave, you blessed it;
All were fed, with much to spare.

Where is bread? We know their yearning;
Every day, we wish for more.
God, in time, we're slowly learning:
All we own can make us poor.
Our possessions can possess us,
Leaving hunger deep inside.
Christ our Bread, come now and bless us;
At your feast, we're satisfied.

"Where is bread?" the call is rising;
Millions cry who must be fed.
God, your answer seems surprising:
"You, my Church, you give them bread."
Bread to fill each hungry spirit,
Bread for hungry stomachs, too!
Give us bread and help us share it.
Richly blest, may we serve you.

Opening Prayer Bread for the World

God of love, we gather this day to worship you, to hear your word proclaimed, to pray for our neighbors, near and far, and to offer the gift of our voices and our actions so that children around the world have enough nourishing food that they will thrive. Amen.

Response Spirit of the Living God

Spirit of the living God fall afresh on me;
Spirit of the living God fall afresh on me.
Melt me, mold me, fill me, use me!
Spirit of the living God fall afresh on me.

Deep river, my home is over Jordan,
Deep river, Lord,
I want to cross over into campground.
Oh, don't you want to go to that gospel feast,
That promised land where all is peace?
Oh, deep river, Lord,
I want to cross over into campground.

*Response 2176—Make Me a Servant | Blue Songbook

Make me a ser-vant, hum-ble and meek, Lord, let me lift up those who are weak. And may the prayer of my heart al-ways be: Make me a ser-vant, make me a ser-vant, make me a ser-vant to-day. _____

Prayer of Dedication United Church of Christ

Holy One, as we move toward our sharing of our simple and sacred sacrament of communion this morning, as we prepare ourselves and one another to eat and drink, it is in the hope that one day, none will know hurt or hunger or hopelessness. We thank you, God, for the opportunity to be fed and for the commission to go forth into the world, seeking to be bearers of your Good News for all people – Good News that is sometimes in the form of bread. Amen.

Scripture Luke 24:44-53 | New Revised Standard Version—NRSV

Then he said to them, “These are my words that I spoke to you while I was still with you—that everything written about me in the law of Moses, the prophets, and the psalms must be fulfilled.” Then he opened their minds to understand the scriptures, and he said to them, “Thus it is written, that the Messiah is to suffer and to rise from the dead on the third day, and that repentance and forgiveness of sins is to be proclaimed in his name to all nations, beginning from Jerusalem. You are witnesses of these things. And see, I am sending upon you what [the Divine] promised; so stay here in the city until you have been clothed with power from on high.”

Then he led them out as far as Bethany, and, lifting up his hands, he blessed them. While he was blessing them, he withdrew from them and was carried up into heaven. And they worshiped him, and returned to Jerusalem with great joy; and they were continually in the temple blessing God.

Ephesians 1:15-23 | Common English Bible—CEB

Since I heard about your faith in the Lord Jesus and your love for all God’s people, this is the reason that I don’t stop giving thanks to God for you when I remember you in my prayers. I pray that the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the [Source] of glory, will give you a spirit of wisdom and revelation that makes God known to you. I pray that the eyes of your heart will have enough light to see what is the hope of God’s call, what is the richness of God’s glorious inheritance among believers, and what is the overwhelming greatness of God’s power that is working among us believers. This power is conferred by the energy of God’s powerful strength. God’s power was at work in Christ when God raised him from the dead and sat him at God’s right side in the heavens, far above every ruler and authority and power and angelic power, any power that might be named not only now but in the future. God put everything under Christ’s feet and made him head of everything in the church, which is his body. His body, the church, is the fullness of Christ, who fills everything in every way.

Our [Creator/Mother/Father/Holy One] who art in Heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on Earth as it is in Heaven. For thine is the Kingdom and the power and the glory forever. Amen.

Holy One, we eat and we drink in hope that one day, no one will know hurt or hunger or hopelessness. Tuesday Afternoon Dialogue – June 3

1st & 3rd Tuesday | 1:45pm fellowship | 2:00-3:00pm discussion

Zoom Link (312) 626-6799; Meeting ID: 836 7061 7428; Passcode: 480007

Please join us on Zoom on May 6, May 20, and June 3 for discussion of the book The Island of Sea Women by Lisa See. At each meeting we'll gather at 1:45 on Zoom to check in with each other and get to know each other better, and then discuss the book in thirds, one third of the book at each meeting.

This is the second Lisa See novel that TAD has read. The author accurately provides historical detail and context, and tells a fascinating story in each book that she writes. From the book jacket, this historical fiction book, set on the Korean Island of Jeju, follows two girls from very different backgrounds as they begin working in the sea with their village's all-female diving collective in the 1930s. The book spans wars and generations. After hundreds of dives and years of friendship, forces outside their control will push their relationship to the breaking point. This beautiful, thoughtful novel illuminates a unique and unforgettable culture, one where the women are in charge, engaging in dangerous physical work, and the men take care of the children.

PUCC ANNUAL MEETING: Leadership

This serves as an official call to our Annual Meeting: Leadership that will take place at the end of the worship service on Sunday, June 8 in the sanctuary. We will elect new Council and Commission members and talk about where we have been and where are headed.

Copies of the slate of candidates for elected positions are on the table by the couches in the Gathering Space.

Following the Annual meeting, we invite all members of Commissions, Committees, Teams and Vitality leaders to a lunch in the Fellowship Hall. While enjoying lunch, we hope that you will meet with your leadership group, choose a convener (if required) and set the calendar and goals for the program year. Council members are preparing casseroles, so if you are willing to bring a salad or dessert to share, that would be very much appreciated.

Tuesday Evening Dialogue – June 10

Tuesday, June 10 | 6-8pm | Heritage Room

Zoom Meeting ID: 849 4403 9731 ; Passcode: 792617

Please join us as we discuss our book selection for June entitled How We Learn to Be Brave by Bishop Marion Budde. Bishop Budde delivered the homily at the January 2025 interfaith prayer service following Donald Trump's second presidential inauguration. Her sermon called for compassion and mercy toward marginalized groups.

This book is described as an inspirational guide to the key junctures in life that, if navigated with faith and discernment, pave the way for us to become our most courageous selves. The decisive moments in life are those pivot points when we're called on to push past our fears and act with strength. With How We Learn to Be Brave, Bishop Mariann Budde teaches us to respond with clarity and grace even in the toughest times. Being brave is not a singular occurrence; it's a journey that we can choose to undertake every day.

We will break the book into two sessions on June 10 and June 24. Please join us in person in the Heritage Room for Potluck at 6pm followed by book discussion at 7pm. Or join us on Zoom at 6:45 pm.

Bring a dish to share for our potluck and join us for our next conversation! Newcomers are always welcome!

ADULTS – WE NEED YOU TOO! Want to help or chaperone? Let us know! Let's make this a week to remember.

North City Tornado Relief

A wide variety of organizations and groups are pooling their resources and putting love into action after the recent STL tornado. We are letting you know about one such effort shared with us by young adult PUCCer Nathan Rauscher. [Please keep in mind that we aren't endorsing anything about the groups other than the work they are doing for the common good.]

He is working to provide tornado relief to residents in North City. If you would like to volunteer or offer supplies, please reach out to him at rauschern1@sbcglobal.net. Supplies that they need are: PPE - N95s, toiletries, diapers, batteries (D, AA, AAA), flashlights, tarps, tall ladders (20ft+), bandaids and first aid kits, portable radios, and personal cleaning supplies (towels, soap, water, deodorant) Volunteers can bring saws, hatchets, and gloves for clearing trees.

Please Sign Up to Bring Sunday Snacks/Treats

If you love having treats after the church service, the Sunday Serving - Treats Group (listed in One Church) would love for you to sign up to bring treats. At our Town Hall Meeting last summer, quite a few church participants requested that we have snacks after church, like we did before COVID.

PUCcers love their snacks. Instructions: Please bring about 50 bite-size treats such as muffins, donut holes, brownies, cookies, fruit, or a combination.

Simple, purchased rather than homemade, is fine. We want this to be easy.

You can bring the items on plates, trays, or in their containers. Please give leftovers away or take them home on Sunday after people are finished with the snacks. Log in to One Church, our church software, to sign up. If you need help with One Church or signing up for treats, please contact Gabriel gabriel@parkwayucc.org 314-872-9330 ext. 101 , or Cindy Nouri cynthianouri@gmail.com who are happy to help.

*How very good and pleasant it is when kindred live together in unity! -
Psalm 133:1 (NRSV)*

Imagine, if you will, that your neighbors are having a big family party. Every time their front door opens, you hear a chorus of joyful greetings: Hello! You're here! So great to see you!

Now imagine that you're walking through an oak woodland, and you hear the same kind of ecstatic greeting. Only here, the shouts of joy are coming from high above your head, and they sound something like, Waka-waka-waka!! If you look up quickly, you'll witness the event that has occasioned this loud celebration: an acorn woodpecker has just returned from a foraging expedition, causing family and friends to flap their wings and shout for joy.

I've spent many happy hours beneath the oaks, observing the clownish antics of Melanerpes formicivorus, and I am here to tell you that this wild greeting takes place all day long, every single time a bird returns to the communal tree. Apparently, the joy of welcoming someone home never gets old.

And what a home it is! Acorn woodpeckers live in social groups of a dozen or more birds, storing acorns in their shared granaries: dead trees pocked with thousands of acorn-shaped holes, many of which were drilled by past generations of birds. Communal groups also have an unusual mating arrangement in which multiple males and females breed together, raise chicks in one big cohort, and share resources cooperatively. Even non-breeding siblings sometimes stick around for years, helping to forage for food, manage the shared acorn stash, and care for younger birds.

How good it is, indeed, for kindred to live together. Hallelujah! Waka-waka! Welcome home!

Prayer:

God of earth and oak, of flapping wings and raucous song, help us to learn from our wise neighbors. May they teach us how to live in harmony, sharing the gifts of your abundant love.
