3rd Sunday of Advent: Hope

Sunday, December 14, 2025 | 10:00am | Sanctuary & YouTube Live

Prelude Lo, How a Rose E'er Blooming Michelle Breuggemann and Amy Freeman

Welcome Let us know you are here!

Introit Ring in the Jingle Bells Kinderbells

Meditation Joy is not the same as happiness. We can be unhappy about many things, but joy can still be there because it comes from the knowledge of God's love for us... Joy does not simply happen to us. We have to choose joy and keep choosing it every day. It is a choice based on the knowledge that we belong to God and have found in God our refuge and our safety and that nothing, not even death, can take God away from us. ~Henri Nouwen

Passing the Joy of Christ "May the joy of Christ be with you."
(We are intentional about bringing more joy into the world.)

Lighting of the Candles & Ringing of the Bell

Welcome Song Lead Me, Guide Me

Lead me, guide me, a - long the way,
for if you lead me, I can - not stray.
Lord, let me walk each day with thee.
Lead me, O Lord, lead me. _____

*Gathering at the Advent Wreath ~ Joy

One:	In this season of waiting, we come with hearts that ache for good news.
Many:	Still, joy rises - quiet but persistent - like dawn over the horizon.
One:	Joy is not the denial of sorrow, but the courage to hope anyway.
Many:	We gather to practice that courage, to remember that God delights in us.
One:	Today we light the candle of Joy, not because all is well -
Many:	but because God's dream for the world is alive and unfolding.
One:	Joy calls us to notice beauty, to celebrate liberation, to stand with the weary and the worn.
Many:	Joy invites us to sing, to laugh, to breathe deeply of grace.
One:	Come, let us worship the One who meets us in every shadow and every song.
Many:	We rejoice together - expectant, grateful, ready to welcome all that God gives.
All:	Let us worship our God together – Creator, Christ and Spirit.

Lighting of the Joy, Peace and Hope Advent Candles

Questions at the Wreath

What do children teach us about joy, curiosity, and delight - and how does that shape our faith?

Where have you noticed a small spark of joy recently - something easy to miss, but worth naming?

How might our church embody joy in ways that heal, include, liberate, and restore?

Response Spirit of God's Living Joy

Spirit of God's living joy, fall afresh on me;

Spirit of God's living joy, fall afresh on me.

Melt me, mold me, fill me, use me!

Spirit of God's living joy, fall afresh on me.

A Light of Advent St. Lucia Day Thad Gwyn

Response Christ Be Our Light

Christ, be our light! Shine in our hearts,
Shine through the darkness.

Christ, be our light! Shine in your church
Gathered today.

Soloist Michelle Brueggemann:
Longing for light, we wait in darkness.
Longing for truth, we turn to you.
Make us your own, your holy people,
Light for the world to see.

Offertory Arctic Odyssey Elijah Gwyn

*Offering Response Be Near Me, Lord Jesus

Be near me, Lord Jesus, I ask you to stay
Close by me forever and love me, I pray
Bless all the dear children in your tender care,
And teach us, dear Jesus, to laugh and to share.

*Prayer of Dedication

Holy One, on this Advent Sunday of Joy, we bring our gifts with grateful hearts. Not because joy is simple, but because joy is sacred - a light that refuses to be extinguished. Bless these gifts that we offer: may they become instruments of delight for those who long for good news. Let joy ripple outward through acts of justice, through words of encouragement, through the courage to imagine a world made whole. As we give, teach us to hold joy gently and to share it boldly. May our generosity join your work of lifting the weary, mending the broken, and birthing hope in surprising places. Amen.

1st Lesson Genesis 3:8-15 Jackie Eiffert

In the Garden of Eden, God tells Adam that the serpent will be punished.

They heard the sound of the God walking in the garden at the time of the evening breeze, and the couple hid themselves from the presence of God among the trees of the garden. But God called to the man, and said to him, "Where are you?" He said, "I heard the sound of you in the garden, and I was afraid, because I was naked; and I hid myself." He said, "Who told you that you were naked? Have you eaten from the tree of which I commanded you not to eat?" The man said, "The woman whom you gave to be with me, she gave me fruit from the tree, and I ate." Then God said to the woman, "What is this that you have done?" The woman said, "The serpent tricked me, and I ate." Then God said to the serpent, "Because you have done this, cursed are you among all animals and among all wild creatures; upon your belly you shall go, and dust you shall eat all the days of your life. I will put enmity between you and the woman, and between your offspring and hers; he will strike your head, and you will strike his heel."

Carol You Made Us In Your Image (Tune: The Church's One Foundation)

You made us in your image, O God of love and grace;
You treasure every person in every time and place.
You call your world to follow — to see in every one
A person loved and cherished, your daughter or your son.

Your will is for your people to live in safety here,
With dignity and justice, and free from want or fear.
In families and nations, may all know freedom's song;
May all enjoy the blessing to choose where they belong.

You warn against enslavement and things that would oppress.
You call for living wages, for times of welcome rest.
You call for education for all — not just a few;
You teach us: Welcome strangers, for so we welcome you.

You made us to be equal; you made us to be free -
To speak the truth with courage, to change society,
To follow our own conscience, to choose the words we pray.
O God, may all your children enjoy these gifts each day.

2nd Lesson Isaiah 9:2,6,7 Sally Dodge

The prophet Isaiah foretells the birth of Christ.

The people who walked in darkness have seen a great light; those who lived in a land of deep darkness—on them light has shined. For a child has been born for us, a son given to us; authority rests upon his shoulders; and he is named Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting One, Prince of Peace. His authority shall grow continually, and there shall be endless peace for the throne of David and the kingdom. He will establish and uphold it with justice and with righteousness from this time onward and forevermore. The zeal of the Lord of hosts will do this.

3rd Lesson Isaiah 11:1-3a, 4a, 6-9 Vivienne Reed

Isaiah speaks of the peace that Christ will bring to the world.

A shoot shall come out from the stump of Jesse, and a branch shall grow out of his roots. The spirit of the Lord shall rest on him, the spirit of wisdom and understanding, the spirit of counsel and might, the spirit of knowledge and the fear of the Lord. His delight shall be in the fear of the Lord. He shall not judge by what his eyes see or decide by what his ears hear; but with righteousness he shall judge the poor and decide with equity for the meek of the earth; he shall strike the earth with the rod of his mouth, and with the breath of his lips he shall kill the wicked. The wolf shall live with the lamb, the leopard shall lie down with the kid, the calf and the lion and the fatling together, and a little child shall lead them. The cow and the bear shall graze, their young shall lie down together; and the lion shall eat straw like the ox. The nursing child shall play over the hole of the asp, and the weaned child shall put its hand on the adder's den. They will not hurt or destroy on all my holy mountain; for the earth will be full of the knowledge of the Lord as the waters cover the sea.

Pastoral Prayer and Prayers of the People

Lord's Prayer

Our [Creator/Mother/Father/Holy One] who art in Heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on Earth as it is in Heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts as we forgive our debtors; and lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil. For thine is the Kingdom and the power and the glory forever. Amen. [A variety of names for God are welcome here - including in the Lord's Prayer.]

4th Lesson Luke 1:26-38 Lynn Mark

The Angel Gabriel appears to the Virgin Mary.

On the sixth month the angel Gabriel was sent by God to a town in Galilee called Nazareth, to a virgin engaged to a man whose name was Joseph, of the house of David. The virgin's name was Mary. And the angel came to her and said, "Greetings, favored one! The Lord is with you." But she was much perplexed by his words and pondered what sort of greeting this might be. The angel said to her, "Do not be afraid, Mary, for you have found favor with God. And now, you will conceive in your womb and bear a son, and you will name him Jesus. He will be great and will be called the Son of the Most High, and the Lord God will give to him the throne of his ancestor David. He will reign over the house of Jacob forever, and of his kingdom there will be no end." Mary said to the angel, "How can this be, since I am a virgin?" The angel said to her, "The Holy Spirit will come upon you, and the power of the Most High will overshadow you; therefore the child to be born will be holy; he will be called Son of God. And now, your relative Elizabeth in her old age has also conceived a son; and this is the sixth month for her who was said to be barren. For nothing will be impossible with God." Then Mary said, "Here am I, the servant of the Lord; let it be with me according to your word." Then the angel departed from her.

5th Lesson Luke 2:1, 3-7 Daniel Jones

The birth of Jesus is described by Luke.

In those days a decree went out from Emperor Augustus that all the world should be registered. All went to their own towns to be registered. Joseph also went from the town of Nazareth in Galilee to Judea, to the city of David called Bethlehem, because he was descended from the house and family of David. He went to be registered with Mary, to whom he was engaged and who was expecting a child. While they were there, the time came for her to deliver her child. And she gave birth to her firstborn son and wrapped him in bands of cloth, and laid him in a manger, because there was no place for them in the inn.

6th Lesson Luke 2:8-14 Atticus Reed

The shepherds journey to the manger.

In that region there were shepherds living in the fields, keeping watch over their flock by night. Then an angel of the Lord stood before them, and the glory of the Lord shone around them, and they were terrified. But the angel said to them, "Do not be afraid; for see—I am bringing you good news of great joy for all the people: to you is born this day in the city of David a Savior, who is the Messiah, the Lord. This will be a sign for you: you will find a child wrapped in bands of cloth and lying in a manger." And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host, praising God and saying, "Glory to God in the highest heaven, and on earth peace among those whom God favors!"

6th Lesson Luke 2:15-16 Jo Grove

When the angels had left them and gone into heaven, the shepherds said to one another, "Let us go now to Bethlehem and see this thing that has taken place, which the Lord has made known to us." So they went with haste and found Mary and Joseph, and the child lying in the manger.

7th Lesson Matthew 2:1-11 James Milam

Three wise men follow the star and are led to Jesus.

In the time of King Herod, after Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judea, wise men from the East came to Jerusalem, asking, "Where is the child who has been born king of the Jews? For we observed his star at its rising and have come to pay him homage." When King Herod heard this, he was frightened, and all Jerusalem with him; and calling together all the chief priests and scribes of the people, he inquired of them where the Messiah was to be born. They told him, "In Bethlehem of Judea; for so it has been written by the prophet: 'And you, Bethlehem, in the land of Judah, are by no means least among the rulers of Judah; for from you shall come a ruler who is to shepherd my people Israel.'" Then Herod secretly called for the wise men and learned from them the exact time when the star had appeared. Then he sent them to

Bethlehem, saying, “Go and search diligently for the child; and when you have found him, bring me word so that I may also go and pay him homage.”

When they had heard the king, they set out; and there, ahead of them, went the star that they had seen at its rising, until it stopped over the place where the child was. When they saw that the star had stopped, they were overwhelmed with joy. On entering the house, they saw the child with Mary his mother; and they knelt down and paid him homage. Then, opening their treasure chests, they offered him gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh.

8th Lesson John 1:1-5, 10-12, 14 Ashley Milam

John unfolds the mystery of Christ's birth.

In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. He was in the beginning with God. All things came into being through him, and without him not one thing came into being. What has come into being in him was life, and the life was the light of all people. The light shines in the darkness, and the darkness did not overcome it. He was in the world, and the world came into being through him; yet the world did not know him. He came to what was his own, and his own people did not accept him. But to all who received him, who believed in his name, he gave power to become children of God, and the Word became flesh and lived among us, and we have seen his glory, the glory of God's only son, full of grace and truth.

A Giving Tree 2025

In the Bible, the rainbow symbolizes God's promise to all living things. A rainbow Christmas tree in our Gathering Space on the round table by the main office is filled with colorful ornaments.

A mother of three had a car accident in November and is having a great deal of difficulty. She has three part-time jobs. Since she does not have a vehicle and is in the process of healing, she isn't able to make money to purchase Christmas gifts for her three children – 11, 9, 5.

We have a list of favorite colors, clothing/shoes sizes and likes/interests for each child under the tree.

If you are interested and able to help, please take an ornament off the tree. Check the lists and place your name next to the item(s) you plan to purchase on the MASTER COPY sheet for the child you want to gift. Take the ornament and a copy of the sheet with you as a reminder.

Please bring unwrapped gifts back to church, labeled with initial of the child, by Friday night, December 19.

For more information, please reach out to kevin@parkwayucc.org

Christmas Gathering Meal, Games, Singing and Santa

December 2025 Alzheimer's News "Timing is Critically Important": Preemptive Treatment May Delay Alzheimer's

A recent clinical trial found that an experimental drug may help delay the disease in high-risk individuals – particularly when given before symptoms of cognitive decline appear.

Researchers administered an antibody called "gantenerumab" to individuals aged between 30 and 50 who had no symptoms of Alzheimer's, but do have a rare genetic mutation that nearly guarantees they will develop the condition down the road. While "gantenerumab" has previously been linked to clearing amyloid plaques in the brain, which are associated with Alzheimer's, this is the first research to suggest that taking the drug as a preemptive treatment may help preserve cognitive function for longer.

"It doesn't stop the dementia. Dementia still continues, but at a slower rate," WashU School of Medicine research lead Dr. Randall Bateman told CBS News, explaining that participants who took the drug are doing 30% better than untreated individuals. "Timing is critically important," he added.

The study is part of a worldwide network of early-onset Alzheimer's trials that are likely to continue for at least another five years, and the results could mean big things for future research, Bateman said: "If this trial holds up and we can continue to demonstrate benefit year after year that these people are protected, then I actually think that will predict what's going to happen in the near future in ongoing prevention trials. That they will be positive, they will work, they will give people years of dementia-free life."

You can learn more by going to www.alz.org/help-support/resources or the Alzheimer's Helpline which is accessible 24/7 via 800-272-3900 and staffed by master's level clinicians to assist with crisis situations, decision making, and disease information. ### Witnessing Whiteness PUCC Study Group begins in January

We're forming a Witnessing Whiteness learning circle using Shelly Tochluk's book Witnessing Whiteness: The Journey into Racial Awareness and Antiracist Action as our framework. It's a supportive, no-shame space where white-identifying people can explore identity, grow in self-awareness, and practice showing up with more courage, compassion, and clarity in our diverse and hurting world. No expertise needed is - just curiosity and a willingness to reflect in community. This will take place on Zoom - Mondays 6:30-8:30pm

If you're looking for a space to deepen your understanding, build stronger relationships, and align your actions with your values, we'd love to have you. This experience is free. We just ask that you purchase the book. More guidance will be provided by our three trained volunteer facilitators that have been assigned to shepherd or PUCC group.

We invite you to engage in an exciting opportunity that supports our core values of limitless love, courageous action and spirited inquiry. The purpose of this group is to gain thought-provoking information and engage in meaningful conversations surrounding how White people can, and should, play an important role in the fight for racial justice.

Advent Second Mile 2025

Support local and denominational efforts at caring for people via
Circle of Concern | Emmaus Homes | PROMO | The Christmas Fund

Circle of Concern

Serving four west St. Louis County school districts as well as areas of Jefferson County, Circle of Concern provides wholesome foods and a host of other services to more than 2,000 individuals monthly as their needs continue to grow.

Circle's tagline is, "Feeding families is just the beginning." They know that when a family is struggling to put food on the table, there are likely other needs as well. So they offer wraparound support for eligible households: wholesome foods, emergency rent and utility assistance, counseling, career mentorship, scholarships, kid programs and more! These programs work together to take a little off clients' financial plates, and help them to get back on their feet. Along with a caring community of volunteers, donors and community partners, they help families move from crisis and uncertainty to stability.

PROMO

Missouri's statewide LGBTQ+ public policy and advocacy organization was formed in 1986 in response to all of the legal and political attacks on queer persons in Missouri and throughout the country. Unfortunately, with an increase in proposed and enacted anti-LGBTQ+ legislation today, the need for organizations like PROMO continue to be needed. Their four focus areas are health and wellness; transgender justice; youth and education; and older LGBTQ+ adults. PUCC has been a satellite location for some of their volunteer trainings and will continue to be in 2026.
