Welcome Let us know you are here!

Meditation We all want progress, but if you're on the wrong road, progress means doing an about-turn and walking back to the right road; in that case, the one who turns back soonest is the most progressive. ~C. S. Lewis

Lighting of the Candles & Ringing of the Bell

Welcome Song You Are Welcome Here

The musical score is written on eight staves in G major (one sharp) and 4/4 time. The lyrics are: You are wel - come here, no mat-ter who you are, no mat-ter where you are, on life's jour - ney, You are wel - come here, no mat-ter who you are, come and join with us, in our U - ni - ted Church of Christ.

Scripture Psalm 15 | Inclusive Language Psalter

God, who may dwell in your tabernacle? Who may abide upon your holy hill? Whoever leads a blameless life and does what is right, who speaks the truth from their heart. There is no guile upon their tongue; they do no evil to their friend; they do not heap contempt upon their neighbor. In their sight the wicked is rejected, but they honor those who are in awe of the Lord. They have sworn to do no wrong and do not take back their word. They do not give their money in hope of gain, nor do they take a bribe against the innocent. Whoever does these things shall never be overthrown.

 Je - sus is pur - er, Who makes the woe - ful heart to sing.
 Je - sus shines pur - er, Than all the an - gels heaven can boast.

*Opening Prayer

Holy One, you bless what the world often overlooks. You call 'beloved' those who feel small, weary, or unsure. Today, at the waters of baptism, remind us that we are claimed - not by fear or failure, but by love deeper than we can name. Wash us again in the truth that we belong to one another.

Today, at the communion table, feed our hunger for justice, our longing for connection, our need for hope. May this bread and cup strengthen us to live the Beatitudes beyond these walls - to show mercy, to make peace, to stand with those the world calls last.

Bless us, O God, not so we can be comfortable, but so we can be courageous. Not so we can be certain, but so we can be faithful. Gather us, shape us, send us - as people of the water and the table, following in the ways of Jesus. Amen.

Response Spirit of the Living God

Wanting as a friend to give, life and love to all who live

Yes, Jesus loves me. Yes Jesus loves me!

Yes, Jesus loves me. The Bible tells me so.

We are fearfully made, and wonderfully made.

Marvelous are God's works, that we now know very well,
and we'll praise God all our days.

Response Here are Our Hearts

Prayer of Dedication

Holy One, You have told us that the poor in spirit are close to Your heart, that those who mourn are held tenderly, that the gentle and merciful reveal Your strength. We offer these gifts knowing they are not signs of our righteousness, but tools for Your healing work. May what we give help lift the weary, feed the hungry, comfort the grieving, and make room for peace in a world that too often rewards hardness. Bless these offerings, and bless us in the giving - that our lives, like our resources, may reflect Your upside-down dream that love is power and justice is joy. Amen.

Scripture Matthew 5:1-12 | New Revised Standard Version Updated Edition
When Jesus saw the crowds, he went up the mountain, and after he sat down, his disciples came to him. And he began to speak and taught them, saying:

“Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

“Blessed are those who mourn, for they will be comforted.

“Blessed are the meek, for they will inherit the earth.

“Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they will be filled.

“Blessed are the merciful, for they will receive mercy.

“Blessed are the pure in heart, for they will see God.

“Blessed are the peacemakers, for they will be called children of God.

“Blessed are those who are persecuted for the sake of righteousness, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

“Blessed are you when people revile you and persecute you and utter all kinds of evil against you falsely on my account. Rejoice and be glad, for your reward is great in heaven, for in the same way they persecuted the prophets who were before you.

For thine is the Kingdom and the power and the glory forever. Amen.

Communion Improvisation on a Reflective Theme in F Major

*Prayer of Thanksgiving

Holy One, at this table You have met us with grace, not achievement, with mercy, not measure. You have fed those who hunger and thirst for what is right and good, strengthened the meek, and reminded us that peacemakers bear Your family resemblance. In bread and cup, You have renewed the promises spoken over us in baptism - that we belong, that we are beloved, that we are called. Now send us out nourished and brave: to bless what the world curses, to choose mercy over indifference, to seek justice even when it costs us, and to trust that love is never wasted. May we live as people who have tasted blessing - and cannot keep it to ourselves. Amen.

Speak Out: A Banner Party Create signs for future protests, vigils

TODAY | 1:30-4pm | Fellowship Hall

This is a drop-in event; come with ideas, materials (if possible*), and as many hands as possible; we will spread out on the tables and create signs and banners to be used at public gatherings.

- Children and friends are welcome.
- Participants take their signs and banners with them for future events.
- One or two fabric banners will be left at PUCC for use by anyone who wants to borrow them.

Seeking donations (or loan) of materials: ideas for slogans/messages, cardboard (corrugated and/or poster), markers, large-letter stencils, rulers, pencils, acrylic paint, inexpensive brushes, newspapers (to protect tables), sharp scissors, box cutters, masking/painter tape (for almost-instant lettering!), duct tape, packing tape, sturdy cardboard rolls or wooden pickets, one staple gun and staples... No fabric donations needed- I have plenty! Also snacks and drinks!

However, SEEKING iron-on adhesive cloth (NOT interfacing; must adhere on both sides), and loan of fabric scissors and 1-2 irons/ ironing boards.

If you want to put a (muted color) tattered family quilt or bedspread to a new use, though, it would make an awesome banner... or two, if cut in half. contact Karla Beck with questions or to donate at Madamebeck@yahoo.com

Zoom Link (312) 626-6799; Meeting ID: 836 7061 7428; Passcode: 480007

Please join TAD as we read and discuss Tom Lake, a novel by Ann Patchett, in one more session on February 3. We'd love to have you! In the spring of 2020, during the COVID-19 pandemic, Lara's three daughters return to the family's orchard in Northern Michigan. While picking cherries, they beg their mother to tell them the story of her life years before at a theater company called Tom Lake. As Lara recalls the past, her daughters examine their own lives and relationship with their mother and are forced to reconsider the world and everything they thought they knew. Fellowship starts at 1:45pm and the book discussion is from 2-3pm. For more info, please contact Jackie Eiffert at jeiffert2@gmail.com

Rooted in Faith and Justice: Christian Calls to Conscience & Cries for Peace in Palestine

Thursday, Feb 5 | 6pm | Zoom ID: 852 4980 9914 Passcode: 886683

In the December, the Church Council adopted a motion to the affirmation of certain principles from the General Synod 35 Resolution "Declaration for an End to Genocide in Palestine." We affirm that all are made in God's image and are deserving of life free from oppression, persecution, and violence. We reject any theology or ideology including Christian Zionism, Supersessionism, antisemitism, anti-Arab, anti-Palestinian, or anti-Islam bias that would privilege or exclude any one nation, race, culture or religion within God's universal economy of grace.

Parkway UCC is encouraged to receive this Resolution as a prophetic call and in an effort to live into this, we'll be offering a five-week reading club of Rooted in Faith and Justice over Zoom. The book offers a powerful and enlightening perspective through the eyes of Palestinian Christian leaders and thinkers, helping us to understand the complexities and injustices of the Israeli-Palestinian conflict.

Each week, we'll cover a different section, starting with section 1. Click or scan QR code to get a copy. Let Gabriel Requadt know you'll be attending by emailing him at gabriel@parkwayucc.org

Zoom Meeting ID: 849 4403 9731; Passcode: 792617
Please join us at TED for friendship and lively book discussions. Our next meeting is Tuesday, Feb 10. This will be our second session on the book Lula Dean's Little Library of Banned Books by Kirsten Miller and we will be discussing Chapters 24 to end of book. This novel will make you laugh out loud but it also brings to life how much books can change how you think and look at life. The author works in pertinent issues of our times including censorship, racism, homophobia and misogyny among others.

We read a variety of books in TED related to social justice, spirituality, different faiths, history, relationships, current events and nature. Bring a dish to share for the potluck & join us for our next conversation! Newcomers are always welcome.

Please join us in person at 6pm or on Zoom starting at 6:45pm.

Speaker Series Occasional opportunities after worship at 11:15am "Growing Up in St. Louis over the Last Century," by Ron Elz, aka Johnny Rabbitt.

Sunday, February 15 | 11:15am | Heritage Room
History comes alive with this program by St. Louis radio legend, Ron Elz, also known as Johnny Rabbitt. Mr. Elz was the first to use the Johnny Rabbitt moniker and helped popularize the name during the 1960's at the radio station KXOK. After some time away from the Rabbitt persona, Mr. Elz resumed using the Johnny Rabbitt name in 1975 and since has hosted the classic oldies show Route 66 on KMOX. He also has continued his legacy by presenting programs that explore interesting and novel nostalgic times in the River City.

What makes nostalgia so powerful? It's because of its bittersweet quality - a mix of happy recollections and a slight sadness for what is lost. Join us as Johnny/Ron takes us down memory lane with stories, legends and myths, fun photos, some trivia, and a few quips and jokes. Questions? Richard Scherrer at 90fivetpr@gmail.com

Reproductive Healthcare Discussion Groups Small Group Discussions for men & women in the Heritage Room

Tuesday, February 24 from 7-8:30pm Saturday, February 28 from 2-3:30pm
Saturday, March 21 from 3-4:30pm

Parkway UCC is offering several presentations and discussion groups centered around reproductive healthcare for women and their families. These small group discussions will facilitate sharing experiences of reproductive healthcare. By sharing our views and experiences, we reduce stigma, develop awareness, and build solidarity. Scan or click the QR code and reserve early as space is limited for some sessions. By respectfully listening to and sharing experiences about reproductive healthcare in a supportive environment you can learn how to support the rights of women, their families and physicians to make reproductive healthcare decisions. Speaker: Ruth A Huebner, PhD in Psychology, former Child Welfare Research Consultant for the US Children's Bureau.

Standing with Women's Reproductive Rights

Parkway UCC has a proud history of standing with people who have been negatively affected by the prevailing sentiment and/or political climate. In late 2025, the Church Council voted to support the General Synod resolution:

"Denouncing the Dobbs Decision and Proclaiming Abortion as Healthcare." We are planning several small group events in February and March. There will also be an after-church presentation on March 1. Reminder about Qualified Charitable Distributions (QCDs)

As the year begins, many retirees will be required to take Required Minimum Distributions (RMDs) from their Individual Retirement Accounts 2026. You may give up to $111,000 in 2026 from your IRA to qualified charities, including Parkway, and these Qualified Charitable Distributions (QCDs) have tax advantages. Your gift may satisfy all or part of your RMD, resulting in less taxable income. In addition to reducing taxes, making QCDs may in some situations lower Medicare premiums or even cause less taxation of Social Security.

To make a QCD, the donation must go directly from the custodian of your Individual Retirement Account (IRA) to Parkway UCC, as the charitable recipient. That is, you may not make a personal withdrawal from your IRA and then pass that on to Parkway; only contributions made directly from the IRA to Parkway qualify as QCDs. Generally, the procedure for making a QCD is to contact the administrator of your IRA and ask that a gift be made directly from the IRA to Parkway. If you have check-writing features on your IRA, you can write a check on the IRA directly to Parkway.

The funds must be removed from your account and deposited by the recipient by December 31. Parkway will provide you with a written receipt for your gift made through your IRA. You can consider establishing a continuing QCD over a series of years. For example, you might wish to create a QCD of $3000 in each of five years. This would result in a contribution of $15000 over the five years with the tax advantages described above.

If you wish to make a Qualified Charitable Distribution, we recommend that you consult with your tax or legal advisor to make sure you have followed the proper procedures, and that the QCD fits with your tax and estate planning objectives.

English Conversation Request

Some of you will remember Luke, a graduate student from Eden Seminary, who worshipped with us regularly when he was here from Sri Lanka in 2017-2018.

https://www.globalministries.org/sri_lankan_students_graduate_from_eden_and_princeton/

He reached out to us last week through Greg Schmelig (often his ride to and from church) to give us an update on his life and ministry... and to ask us for some help with conversational English with some of the students in his village.

Here is part of his letter:

My family and I are doing well. My ministry is also moving forward, and one key part of it is teaching English to adults in our village. Currently, I have a group of about 10 students. While we cover grammar and other essentials, many still find it challenging to speak confidently. Because of this, I've decided to place a special emphasis on conversational practice. Here in the village, many young people miss opportunities due to language barriers. Even when they know some English, they struggle to speak fluently. To help them, I'm hoping to find a volunteer who would be willing to join our class remotely for conversation sessions. Our class meets twice a week for about an hour and a half each session. Ideally, the volunteer could join for the last half hour of each class to engage the students in guided conversation. I've scheduled the classes for Monday and Tuesday mornings from 7:00 to 8:30am (USA Central Time), so the conversational segment would be from approximately 8:00 to 8:30am. The volunteer could speak with students on various everyday topics to build their confidence. I'd also appreciate gentle correction when mistakes are made. Even though it's a group setting, I plan to organize the time so each student gets a few minutes of one-on-one speaking practice. Thank you for considering this opportunity to support my students. Your help could make a meaningful difference in their lives and futures. God bless you.

~Luke

We are looking for three people that would be willing to give this a try. Please let kevin@parkwaucc.org know and he can give you Luke's email address so you can reach out to him directly. Thank you for considering this.

Drivers Needed

From time to time, PUCCers are in need of rides to medical appts when their usual circle of support is unavailable. Some in our church family also need help getting to worship. Please let kevin@parkwayucc.org know you are willing to help. You will be added to the list of potential drivers and will receive an email once we have a request for a ride.
