Passing the Peace of Christ

“May the peace of Christ be with you.”

(We are intentional about bringing more peace into the world.)

Lighting of the Candles & Ringing of the Bell

Welcome Song Holy Ground

The musical score is written on five staves in a key of B-flat major (two flats) and 4/4 time. The melody is simple and hymn-like, with lyrics written below the notes. The lyrics are: "We are stand - ing _____ on ho - ly ground, _____ and I know that there are an - gels all a - round; _____ let us praise _____ Je - sus now; _____ we are stand - ing in his pres - ence on ho - ly ground. _____".

We are stand - ing _____ on ho - ly ground, _____
_____ and I know that there are an - gels all a - round; _____ let us praise _____
_____ Je - sus now; _____ we are stand - ing in his pres - ence on ho - ly ground. _____

Scripture Exodus 24:12-18 | Common English Bible

The Lord said to Moses, “Come up to me on the mountain and wait there. I’ll give you the stone tablets with the instructions and the commandments that I’ve written in order to teach them.”

So, Moses and his assistant Joshua got up, and Moses went up God’s mountain. Moses had said to the elders, “Wait for us here until we come back to you. Aaron and Hur will be here with you. Whoever has a legal dispute may go to them.”

Then Moses went up the mountain, and the cloud covered the mountain. The Lord's glorious presence settled on Mount Sinai, and the cloud covered it for six days. On the seventh day the Lord called to Moses from the cloud. To the Israelites, the Lord's glorious presence looked like a blazing fire on top of the mountain. Moses entered the cloud and went up the mountain. Moses stayed on the mountain for forty days and forty nights.

*Call to Worship

One:	Come, all who have climbed hard roads, all who carry questions heavier than answers.
Many:	We gather at the mountain's edge, where cloud and fire once met Moses, where God's glory shimmered beyond human control.
One:	We gather again on another mountain, where Jesus' face shone, the ordinary was revealed as holy, and fear stood beside wonder.
Many:	God still calls us upward - not to escape the world, but to see it more clearly.
One:	Here, in this place, we listen for the voice that says, "This is my beloved—listen."
Many:	Let us worship the God who meets us in brilliance and shadow, who transforms not just faces, but also changes hearts, communities, and the world.
One:	Come. The cloud is near. The light is already among us.
All:	Let us worship our God together - Creator, Christ and Spirit.

*Song Holy! Holy! Holy! Lord God Almighty

1. Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly! Lord God Al - might - y!
 2. Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly! all the saints a - dore Thee,

 All Thy works shall praise Thy name, in earth and sky and sea;

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly! mer - ci - ful and might - y!
 Cher - u - bim and ser - a - phim fall - ing down be - fore Thee,
 On - ly Thou art ho - ly; there is none be - side Thee
 Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly! mer - ci - ful and might - y!

 Who wert, and art, and ev - er - more shalt be.
 Per - fect in power, in love and pu - ri - ty.
 God in three Per - sons, bless - ed Trin - i - ty!

*Opening Prayer

Holy Mystery, You call us up the mountain - into cloud and fire, into brilliance that unsettles and beauty that silences our certainty. You spoke to Moses in thunder and waiting, and to the disciples in light they could barely name. You still speak - not to frighten us into obedience, but to draw us into wonder. When the cloud descends and we are tempted to turn away, teach us to linger and listen. When the voice says, "Do not be afraid," help us believe it. Transfigure us here - not so we can stay on the mountaintop, but so we may return changed: with courage for the valley, clarity for the journey, and love that shines through our ordinary lives. We open ourselves to your presence, to your beloved Son, to the holy work of hearing and becoming. Amen.

*Response Spirit of the Living God

Spirit of the living God fall afresh on me;
Spirit of the living God fall afresh on me.
Melt me, mold me, fill me, use me!
Spirit of the living God fall afresh on me.

Blessing the Children Jesus' Hands Were Kind Hands

Je - sus' hands were kind hands, do - ing good to all. Heal - ing pain and Take my hands, Lord Je - sus, let them work for you. Make them strong and sick - ness, bless - ing child - ren small. Wash - ing tir - ed feet and sav - ing those who fall. Je - sus' hands were kind hands, do - ing good to all.

till I'm gen - tle too. Till my hands are kind hands, quick to work for you.

Scripture Matthew 17:1-8 | New Revised Standard Version Updated Edition
Six days later, Jesus took with him Peter and James and his brother John and led them up a high mountain, by themselves. And he was transfigured before them, and his face shone like the sun, and his clothes became bright as light. Suddenly there appeared to them Moses and Elijah, talking with him. Then Peter said to Jesus, "Lord, it is good for us to be here; if you wish, I will set up three tents here, one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah."

While he was still speaking, suddenly a bright cloud overshadowed them, and a voice from the cloud said, “This is my Son, the Beloved; with him I am well pleased; listen to him!”

When the disciples heard this, they fell to the ground and were overcome by fear. But Jesus came and touched them, saying, “Get up and do not be afraid.” And when they raised their eyes, they saw no one except Jesus himself alone.

Holy One, we offer these gifts as signs of our willingness to listen when Your voice unsettles us, to follow when the path leads back into the valley, and to shine - not for ourselves, but for the healing of the world you love. Receive what we bring: our money, our energy, our hope, our fear, and transfigure them into justice that liberates, love that includes, and courage that endures beyond the mountaintop. We pray in the light that guides us and the cloud that still leads us. Amen.

Speaker Series Occasional opportunities after worship at 11:15am "Growing Up in St. Louis over the Last Century," by Ron Elz, aka Johnny Rabbitt.

TODAY | 11:15am | Heritage Room

History comes alive with this program by St. Louis radio legend, Ron Elz, also known as Johnny Rabbitt. Mr. Elz was the first to use the Johnny Rabbitt moniker and helped popularize the name during the 1960's at the radio station KXOK. After some time away from the Rabbitt persona, Mr. Elz resumed using the Johnny Rabbitt name in 1975 and since has hosted the classic oldies show Route 66 on KMOX. He also has continued his legacy by presenting programs that explore interesting and novel nostalgic times in the River City.

What makes nostalgia so powerful? It's because of its bittersweet quality - a mix of happy recollections and a slight sadness for what is lost. Join us as Johnny/Ron takes us down memory lane with stories, legends and myths, fun photos, some trivia, and a few quips and jokes. Questions? ## Support the Immigrant Community at a Faith Rally

TOMORROW Monday, Feb 16 | 10am-12pm | MLK Bridge, St Louis

Indivisible St. Louis is partnering with members of the clergy and faith community for a special rally on Presidents Day. Like many activists, these religious leaders have been moved to action by recent heartbreaking events. The clergy and faith community call on people across our region to gather for a Presidents Day Rally, bringing faith and justice together on the MLK Bridge. Join us as we lift a moral voice and hold space for all who wish to stand in solidarity with immigrant communities and call for an end to the devastating treatment so many are facing. This gathering will be a peaceful and prayerful witness, offering a way for those who have grown weary of violence and intimidation to show up grounded in conscience, compassion, and care. We will meet at the base of the bridge at 10am and walk up to the middle to meet with those from the other side of the bridge. The rally includes music, testimonies of those experiencing injustice, and words of faith and hope.

** A 9am BUS FROM SHAARE EMETH MAY HAVE SEATS REMAINING!

Together, we will call for an end to violence and intimidation and for meaningful immigration reform. The blood of our kin cries out from the ground, and tears flow from the places where they are forced to hide. We cry out for wholeness, healing, and justice for all. This is an outdoor event. For your own safety, please be mindful of weather conditions and wear comfortable walking shoes. Questions? kevin@parkwayucc.org today.

Isaiah 58 Ministries Groundbreaking Celebration

Tuesday, February 24 | 10am | 4164 Chippewa St, St. Louis 63116

You are invited to the groundbreaking of the Isaiah 58 Ministries new facility. For nearly 60 years, Isaiah 58 Ministries has served individuals and families across South St. Louis by addressing food insecurity and providing access to basic necessities. In recent years, the number of households seeking assistance has continued to grow, along with a shift in where many of their guests now live. These changing community needs prompted them to think intentionally about how and where they could best serve their neighbors moving forward.

Two years ago, their organization began a visioning process to identify a space that could become the heart and hub of community support — a centralized location designed to increase access, dignity, and connection for those they serve. They are proud to share that this vision is now becoming reality. The purchase of this building represents a long-term investment in the surrounding neighborhoods and in the broader effort to strengthen food access, stability, and community wellbeing throughout St. Louis. They would be honored by your presence at their Groundbreaking Celebration. The event will include brief remarks, recognition of community partners, and an opportunity to celebrate this important milestone together. We hope you will be able to join them as they mark this meaningful step forward.

Reproductive Healthcare

Our Church Council recently adopted several UCC General Synod Resolutions. One includes affirming the right of all people to access reproductive health care and that the choice to have and care for children is a sacred decision which should not be forced on anyone. Parkway is facilitating several opportunities to learn more about the political, personal, medical and family well-being implications of this issue.

Two small group discussions, each limited to 8 participants, on Tues, Feb 24, 7-8:30pm, and Sat, Feb 28, 2-3:30pm, will be facilitated by Ruth Huebner, PhD in Psychology & former child welfare research consultant for the US Children's Bureau. The purpose is to provide men and women the opportunity to share their views and experiences of reproductive healthcare. On Saturday, March 21, 3-4:30pm, Ruth will present and lead discussion to build understanding of reproductive healthcare decisions in the context of families -- the possibility of medical complications, the long-term commitment of effective parenting, potential family challenges. RSVP to 827mariani@gmail.com or click or scan QR code for all these programs.

On Sunday, March 1, after worship, Lisa Williams will lead a program addressing “Who should make decisions about reproductive health?” Lisa is the St. Louis County organizer for Abortion Action Missouri. She has a Master of Divinity from Eden Seminary and a law degree from Washington University.

Eco Steward Febuary Report

I wanted to give everyone an update on our FunDrive information. As of today, Feb 15, we have 3 more Sundays to drop off items. That would be the 22nd, March 1 and 8. Any other time during the week is still ok, just let Gabriel know when and where to find them at gabriel@parkwayucc.org. The best place to drop items off would be on the bench in the gym/dining area or right by those doors when you enter the Gathering Space.

Please remember that only soft goods, such as clothing, linens, bedding, curtains, shoes, purses, backpacks, jewelry, belts or anything that you wear on your body, is considered as soft goods and should go in black or white garbage bags. We have more bags in the gathering space on the table by the bulletin board if you'd like or need additional bags. Household goods should go in boxes. That includes kitchen items, toys, games, knick-knacks, etc. Books and media such as VHS tapes, CD's, DVDs etc. should go in SEPARATE boxes. We are paid a different rate for each of these categories, so that's why it matters. If boxes are closed, we don't know what's in there, so please label Household or Books.

We have done very well with our drive so far. I want to let you know about bonuses we get if we can push our total poundage a little higher. We have approximately an estimated 700lbs of Household goods now and if we get this up to 1000lbs, we will receive an extra $50. With books and media, we have an estimated 500lbs. If we get that up to 700lbs, we'll receive an extra $50. We have approximately 2700 TOTAL pounds of everything. If we get that total up to 3000lbs, then they give us a $75 allowance toward renting a U Haul (which we will need). So, if we have a big enough push in these next 3 weeks, we should reach all of those goals. THANK YOU!

Last, but not least, stay tuned for our help request as it gets closer to our drop-off date of March 14. We will need help loading at church and unloading at Savers in Ellisville. Besides the U-Haul, and a Horse Trailer from Lynn Sableman, we may need a truck or two along with the driver, from our members. Only 5 vehicles can drop off our load on Saturday, March 14 at 1pm. So, we can have a caravan of 5 large vehicles at our designated time. We hope to load up the U-Haul and Horse Trailer on Friday afternoon, the 13th. That way, we'll know how many additional trucks we might need and can call the ones who may have volunteered their trucks.

THANKS AGAIN AND please "SAVE THE DATE" for those dates for dropping off, loading (March 13) and unloading (March 14 at 1pm). ~Polly Rutherford

Spilling the Living Tea

Kaji Douša

[The disciples] were astonished that [Jesus] was speaking with a woman... Then the woman left her water-jar and went back to the city. She said to the people, "Come and see a man who told me everything I have ever done! He cannot be the Messiah, can he?" -John 4:27-29 (NRSV)

She came for a chore, but she left with an assignment. She carried too much pain, history, judgment, and—without even knowing—she carried it all the way to Jesus. She just went to put some water in her jar and get back to it.

Jesus didn't turn away from her, knowing all he knew, which was all the tea (her personal business). He met her. He answered her. He took her tea and gave her living water.

The Samaritan woman ran home with her testimony. She said, "Come see this man!" She didn't have all the answers. She didn't need them. She had her story. She had her blessing. She had her call.

She is the first preacher of the good news.

What has Jesus blessed you with? What knowledge, what experience, what blessing has been entrusted to you?

Your story matters. Your testimony matters. Because when Living Water flows into dry places, you can't hold it in. You've got to tell somebody.

Prayer

Jesus, you saw her. You see me. You answered her. Answer me. You blessed her. Bless me, so that I may tell somebody. Amen.

TODAY in Sunday School

Jesus performs another miracle by healing a man on the Sabbath who was born blind, causing division and doubt within the Pharisees (John 9:1-41).

THE POINT

Jesus draws us into relationship even through our brokenness and disbelief.

BIBLE NUTS & BOLTS

Pharisees were a group of Jewish leaders who separated themselves from common life. They were devoted to the Torah, God' law, rigorously teaching and following it. They were influential and authoritative in their interpretation of Scripture. Pharisees resisted outside influence—cultural, religious, political—holding strictly to the law they followed. The New Testament Gospels tell of instances when they challenged Jesus' actions as being unlawful, such as when he healed on the Sabbath in John 9:13-17.

STORY SUMMARY

A man who was born blind had been forced to provide for himself by begging. Some assumed he was blind as a punishment for a sin. Jesus denied this claim and healed the man. The man shared this with others. Those who heard about this miracle brought him before the Pharisees. The Pharisees refused to believe that Jesus gave the man his sight. They accused the man of being a sinner and sent him out of the synagogue. Jesus came to the man and revealed his identity as the Son of God. The man believed.

PRACTICE: Fellowship

Lives are changed and the Body of Christ is built up through loving and caring relationships. Acts of fellowship are any actions that build these relationships. In today's Scripture passage Jesus called himself the light. As a family, shine the light of Jesus into the lives of someone you know through a friendly visit, call, or card.

NEXT WEEK in Sunday School

Jesus declares that he is the Resurrection and the Life and brings his friend Lazarus from death back to life (John 11:1-44).

GOING DEEPER

As you hear and study these stories each week, consider what God has to say to you and your family. What is God's message to us? Consider the following basic pattern as a way of forming family devotions:

- ❖ Light a candle to help you focus this time as "God time." Pray a simple prayer together.
- ❖ Take a moment to check in with each other; what are each person's "highs" and "lows" today?
- ❖ Read aloud from the Daily Bible Readings from below. Discuss the questions following each.
- ❖ End with a blessing, by simply tracing a cross on each other's forehead. The Lord's Prayer is a good way to end your devotion time. If you used a candle, extinguish it as a sign of the end of the devotions.

Note: This is only a suggested pattern. It will vary with your household's context and patterns. What works best for you? First thing in the morning? Over breakfast? Bedtime? Be creative and flexible with how you practice and keep your devotions!
